

Application to the Youth Advisory Board

Due: Monday, August 1st 2018

COYOTE CENTRAL is looking for 8 ambitious young folks for our Youth Advisory Board. These students should see themselves as responsible, creative, and motivated. They will become leaders among their peers by representing youth voice and concerns to the community and to Coyote leadership. They should be passionate about planning, organizing, and taking action to create a positive future for both Coyote Central and society at large.

Commitment

As a participant of Youth Advisory Board I am expected to:

- Attend meetings regularly on every other Sunday
- Support quarterly Coyote events
- Serve 1 year-long term (additional term optional)
- Work hard and contribute to YAB team
- Communicate regularly with YAB lead (bryn mooney)

There are so many AWESOME programs and activities out there. As a teen today, we understand you are likely involved with MANY! Taking into consideration ALL of your other rad interests, are you able to make the two-evenings-a-month meeting commitment with some additional art-making events/ field trips/trainings?

*Along with your completed application please provide a letter of recommendation from someone at school who knows you very well and can describe your leadership qualities, how you work with others, and your style of communication with peers as well as adults. Of course, they should also share any other reasons they think you are the bee's knees!
