

ADEGA FAMILIAR ELADIO PIÑEIRO
(D.O. Rías Baixas, Spain & D.O.C. Alentejo, Portugal)

“It is a journey through time, with memories of the past, using traditional varieties.”

THE WINERY

In the early 1980’s Eladio Piñeiro established his first winery in the Spanish region, Rías Baixas, before its official status as a D.O. appellation was granted. He gained recognition and a reputation for producing great albariño wines.

In January 2003, Eladio Piñeiro made the decision to sell the winery, but maintained ownership of his best vineyards throughout Galicia. Motivated by his family, he began a new venture, Adega Familiar Eladio Piñeiro, returning to the vineyard and the albariño vines. This shows the traditional albariño wines with long lees aging, adding more complexity and depth to the wines.

He supplies 100% from his vineyards, located in the key region Val do Salnés in Rías Baixas for Albariño, and from Alentejo for his Portuguese Gran Reserva red. The vineyards are farmed biodynamic and practices are carried out in the winemaking process allowing these wines to showcase their exceptional terroir, roots, and history.

- Color: Straw yellow, intense, viscous in the glass.
- Gastronomy: Shellfish, steamed mussels, pasta with clams, richer fish like salmon, roasted chicken, veal.

Amodiño – finis terrae. Amodiño means fondly to indulge and finis terrae means the end of the earth. Together they mean “Fondly indulge to the end of the earth”. This wine is produced in exceptional terroirs in Rías Baixas.

CRITICS AND REVIEWS:

Wine & Spirits Magazine, Aug '19 - 91 points - “Deep golden color but not the supple saturation of the fruit, spilling out of the glass in liquid notes of baked nectarine and apple.”

Vinous Media (Spain’s Northern Regions Keep it Cool), Mar '19 - 93 points - “A wild, complex bouquet displays dried pear, beeswax, lemon pith and chamomile. Mineral-driven citrus and orchard fruit flavors. The mineral note drives an impressively long, chewy finish that leaves suggestions of candied hazelnut and bitter pear skin behind”
