

You Alone Have Saved Me

My heart sings a new song
Your death testifies
My flesh has died
Baptized in your name
I'm given new life
You alone have saved me

*You alone have saved me
You alone have claimed me
The water and Word have washed me clean
You alone have saved me*

Through your death there is new life
My sin can stand no more
The power that raised you from the grave
Demands my life be yours
