

National Service Providers for Commercially Sexually Exploited Individuals

ARIZONA

Arizona League to end Regional Trafficking (ALERT)

Phoenix, AZ

Services: ALERT assists trafficked persons by providing immediate shelter and food for victims and their families, as well as immediate medical attention. ALERT provides assistance in applying for US immigration benefits, or repatriation to the victim's home country, if desired. ALERT further offers mental health counseling and treatment, as well as a bank of on-call translators trained in the issue of trafficking in persons. Through our partners, we also offer long-term assistance finding secure housing and achieving self-sufficiency through employment. (Source: <http://www.acf.hhs.gov>)

Website: <http://www.traffickingaz.org/>

Phone: 602-433-2441

DIGNITY House

Phoenix, AZ

Services: Highly structured, long term residential program focused on building self-esteem and self-sufficiency with women in prostitution and provides the physical and psychological environment necessary for women to interrupt the cycle of dependence, substance abuse and incarceration due to prostitution. (Source: Prostitution Research & Education)

Website: <http://www.catholiccharitiesaz.org/>

Phone: 602-258-2785

CALIFORNIA

Banteay Srei

Oakland, CA

Services: Offers court advocacy, family services (we have networked with organizations that can help translate for Mien, Vietnamese and Cambodian speaking families) and referrals for housing, health services and peer services. Due to the high intensity and amount of time we dedicate to working with our young women, we can only work with young Southeast Asian women and girls. (Source: Banteay Srei)

Website: <http://www.girlsempoweringthemselves.com/>

Bilateral Safety Corridor Coalition (BSCC)

San Diego, CA

Services: Advocacy for prostituted and trafficked girls and women. Assistance in providing a comprehensive, multifaceted network offering wrap-around services to women, men, and children who have been victimized by traffickers and held as slaves. Services include case management, housing, legal advocacy, and immigration relief. (Source: BSCC and Prostitution Research & Education)

Website: <http://www.bsccoalition.org/>

Hotline: 619-666-0797

Coalition to Abolish Slavery and Trafficking (CAST)

Los Angeles, CA

Services: CAST's social services goal is to help clients recover from years of abuse and trauma so they may become self-sufficient, thriving members of our community. These services include: Access to food, shelter and job training; Intensive case management (information, assistance and legal education; Mental health and wellness services (counseling, art therapy, peer support); Alternative non-Western healing therapies that are culturally appropriate; Education and life skills training (English as a Second Language, computer and financial literacy). Other services include shelter and legal advocacy. (Source: CAST)

Website: <http://www.castla.org/>

Phone: 213-365-1906

Children of the Night

Los Angeles, CA

Services: Assisting children between the ages of 11 and 17 who are forced to engage in survival sex. Services include shelter, rescue from pimps, counseling, GED preparation, ticket to go home, medical appointments, and court appearances. (Source: Prostitution Research & Education)

Website: <http://childrenofthenight.org/>

Phone: 818-908-4474

Coalition to Abolish Slavery & Trafficking (CAST)

Los Angeles, CA

Services: Upon intake, the CAST staff assesses for emergency needs, such as housing, clothing, food, and safety, followed by a comprehensive assessment and legal interview that also address safety. Attorneys then evaluate the legal needs and provide each client with the necessary education and information to make an informed choice about how to proceed with their case. (Source: CAST)

Website: <http://www.castla.org/>

Phone: 213-365-1906

The Dreamcatcher Youth Shelter (Foster Youth Alliance)

Alameda, CA

Services: Alameda Family Services is a human services organization, active in Alameda and the East Bay, whose programs improve the emotional, psychological, and physical health of children, youth, and families. Dream Catcher Youth Shelter is a program of Alameda Family Services which provides emergency shelter to youth ages 13 through 18. Other services include case management for CSEC individuals. (Source: Foster Youth Alliance)

Website: <http://www.fosteryouthalliance.org/partners/dreamcatcher.htm>

Phone: 510-629-6300

George P. Scotlan Youth and Family Center (Sexually Exploited Minors Program)

Oakland, CA

Services: This program offers case management and support services to sexually exploited minors. The overall purpose is to help transition a sexually exploited minor into a self-empowered minor by linking them to concrete resources, ensuring they are in safe place to live with a reliable income. The program also offers mental health counseling/referrals, life skills training and education and mentoring. (Source: SEM Packet)

Website: <http://www.acgov.org/icpc/sem/scotlan.htm>

Mary Magdalene Project

South Gate, CA

Services: The Mary Magdalene Project's Mission is to provide a long-term residential rehabilitation program for women who want to leave prostitution. Other services include: food, clothing, medical care, individual and group counseling, and job training for eighteen months to two years. (Source: Prostitution Research & Education)

Website: <http://www.mmp.org/>

Phone: 818.988.4970

MISSEY: Motivating, Inspiring, Supporting, and Serving Sexually Exploited Youth

Oakland, CA

Services: Provides direct services to CSEC victims through the SACEY program, which includes a drop-in recovery center. They also provide CSEC victims with client advocacy, case management, and additional recovery and transition services. (Source: MISSEY)

Website: <http://www.misseey.org/>

Phone: 510-267-8840

SafeHouse

San Francisco, CA

Services: While at SafeHouse, a woman receives clothing, food, shelter and supportive services. She receives intensive case management and access to resources to help heal mind, body and soul. A woman may reside at SafeHouse for up to 18 months—giving her time to heal emotionally and physically, gain life skills, and save money, while building her self esteem. Other services include job mentorship, mental health services, and medical treatment. (Source: SafeHouse)

Website: <http://www.sfsafehouse.org/>

Phone: 415-643-7861

San Diego Youth and Community Service (SDYCS)

San Diego, CA

Services: This nationally recognized agency offers emergency services, safe places to live, and long-term solutions for kids "on their own" by providing shelters, group homes, foster homes, community centers, and transitional housing. (Source: SDYCS)

Website: <http://www.sdyouthservices.org/>

Phone: 619-221-8600

Standing Against Global Exploitation (SAGE)

San Francisco, CA

Services: SAGE is committed to improving the lives of women who are survivors of sexual exploitation, violence, and prostitution. The services they offer include peer support, referrals, day treatment programs, clothing assistance, massage, acupuncture, community education, and legal advocacy. (Source: Prostitution Research & Education)

Website: <http://www.sagesf.org>

Phone: 415-905-5050

CANADA

Beyond Borders

Winnipeg, MB

Services: Beyond Borders is a national, bilingual, volunteer organization advancing the rights of children everywhere to be free from sexual abuse and exploitation. Services include monitoring court cases for human rights violations, supporting effective prevention and intervention initiatives, intervening in court cases to provide a voice for victims, and providing training and education. (Source: Beyond Borders)

Website: <http://www.beyondborders.org/>

COLORADO

Prax(us)

Denver, CO

Services: Addresses the root causes of exploitation by creating systemic change and providing direct services through a comprehensive street outreach program. They conduct street outreach through a harm-reduction lens that supports youth agency and facilitates access to resources. They achieve systemic change through community organizing, collaborative relationships, community education, and policy work. (Source: Prax(us))

Website: <http://www.praxus.org/>

Phone: 303-974-2942

CONNECTICUT

The Barnaba Institute

Clinton, CT

Services: The Barnaba Institute is a non-profit organization whose mission is to raise awareness about human trafficking as it pertains to sexual exploitation through education and media; to provide professional training courses on how to identify human trafficking victims; and to provide support, guidance and care to sexually exploited and trafficked youth and adults. Services include transportation and street outreach. (Source: Barnaba Institute)

Website: <http://www.barnabainstitute.org/>

Phone: 860-447-2060

The Paul and Lisa Program, Inc.

Westbrook, CT

Services: The Paul & Lisa Program, Inc. focuses on four concepts through their programming: Prevention, Assistance, Redirection, and Support. They contract with the State of Connecticut Judicial Branch to administer an alternative to incarceration program for women arrested on prostitution charges in the Waterbury and Hartford Community Court System (Source: Paul and Lisa Program)

Website: <http://www.paulandlisa.org>

EASTERN UNITED STATES

The Salvation Army New Community Program

Services: New Community supports women exiting prostitution. It provides case management, crisis counseling, advocacy, biblical instruction, recovery and support groups, a daytime drop-in center, on-street and in-prison outreach to help women escape prostitution by developing a new community, free from exploitation. (Source: The Salvation Army)

Website: <http://www.salvationarmyusa.org/>

FLORIDA

Florida Coalition Against Human Trafficking (FCAHT)

Florida Region

Services: FCAHT works closely with community service providers to provide victims with emergency food and shelter, medical and psychological treatment and other services as needed to help these individuals restore their lives and their freedoms. (Source: FCAHT)

Website: <http://www.stophumantrafficking.org/>

Phone: 727-442-3064

Kristi House

Miami, FL

Services: Kristi House provides a healing environment for all child victims of sexual abuse and their families, regardless of income, through prevention, treatment and coordination of services with their community partners. Services include housing, case management, and medical treatment. (Source: Kristi House)

Website: <http://www.kristihouse.org/>

Phone: 305-547-6800

GEORGIA

Center to End Adolescent Sexual Exploitation (CEASE)

Atlanta, GA

Services: CEASE was created by the Juvenile Justice Fund to raise community awareness and offer advocacy and prevention services for CSEC survivors and youth at risk of exploitation. Angela's House is their main source of housing for CSEC survivors and serves about eighteen girls annually. (Source: JJF)

Website: <http://www.juvenilejusticefund.org/>

Phone: 404-224-4999

HAWAII

Sisters Offering Support (SOS)

Honolulu, HI

Services: SOS's mission is to provide prostitution prevention and intervention through education and awareness. Services for CSE individuals include Individual counseling and peer group support, referral to community resources, a crisis line, and community education. (Source: Prostitution Research & Education)

Website: <http://www.soshawaii.org>

Phone: 808-941-5554

ILLINOIS

STOP-IT Salvation Army

Chicago, IL

Services: The STOP-IT Program attempts to build relationships with suspected trafficked persons through street outreach, and assists persons currently victimized, as well as survivors through service referrals and ongoing support. (Source: Salvation Army)

Website: www.sa-stopit.org

PROMISE Salvation Army

Chicago, IL

Services: PROMISE, developed by The Salvation Army, includes a task force which engages in initiatives that address the PROMISE provisions of awareness, prevention, intervention, and service delivery. Strategies for implementing the provisions are developed by members who represent the social service, education, legal, judicial, healthcare, law enforcement, and other government sectors thus ensuring a comprehensive and holistic approach. (Source: Salvation Army)

Website: <http://www.sapromise.org/>

Phone: 312-291-7916

The Dreamcatcher Foundation

Chicago, IL

Services: The Dreamcatcher Foundation reaches out to girls and young women between the ages of 12-25 years old with the hopes of igniting confidence, courage, independence, and inner strength within them. As a not-for-profit organization, The Dreamcatcher Foundation, seeks to improve the lives of Chicago's most disadvantaged and disenfranchised young women through education, empowerment, and prevention of sexual exploitation. Services include education, counseling, and health services. (Source: Dreamcatcher)

Website: <http://www.thedreamcatcherfoundation.org/>

Phone: 312-458-9615

MARYLAND

You are Never Alone (YANA)

Baltimore, MD

Services: The mission of YANA is to reach out in love to women and girls involved in prostitution and human trafficking, offering alternatives to those seeking change and compassionate support for those exploited by any aspect of the life. Their mission is accomplished through street outreach (daytime and evening/night); drop-in services (food, clothing, personal items, and support offered in a homelike setting); trauma counseling; medical services (through Health Care for the Homeless), and advocacy. (Source: YANA)

Website: <http://www.yanaplace.org/>

Phone: 410-566-7973

MASSACHUSETTES

Germaine Lawrence

Arlington, MA

Services: Germaine Lawrence provides the highest quality residential treatment services in New England for adolescent girls. They offer a comprehensive continuum of services that helps girls reduce destructive behaviors, develop age-appropriate social skills, and make enough progress to enable them to live at home or in the community safely again. Services include: clinical services, counseling, health care services, education, and housing. (Source: Germaine Lawrence)

Website: <http://www.germainelawrence.org/>

Phone: 781-648-6200

The My Life, My Choice Project

Boston, MA

Services: MLMC provides a unique continuum of prevention, victim identification, and intervention services. MLMC offers provider training, prevention groups, case coordination, and survivor mentoring to victims of exploitation. Since 2002, MLMC has reached over 500 girls and over 2,000 providers, in Massachusetts and nationally, in a variety of locations including group homes, juvenile detention facilities, child protective services offices, schools, and other community based settings. (Source: MLMC)

Website: <http://www.jri.org/mylife/>

Phone: 617-779-2179

Roxbury Youthworks

Boston, MA

Services: Roxbury Youthworks Inc. combats the roots of juvenile delinquency in the inner city neighborhoods of Boston by providing innovative support services to court-involved and other youth up to 21 years of age. RYI provides Boston's only Life Coaches that work with victims of commercial sexual exploitation. Services include education, counseling, and advocacy. (Source: RYI)

Website: <http://www.roxburyyouthworks.org/>

MICHIGAN

Alternatives for Girls

Detroit, MI

Services: Alternatives For Girls helps homeless and high-risk girls and young women avoid violence, teen pregnancy and exploitation, and helps them to explore and access the support, resources and opportunities necessary to be safe, to grow strong, and to make positive choices in their lives. AFG accomplishes this mission through three key services: AFG Prevention, the AFG Shelter/Transition to Independent Living Program (TIL) and AFG Outreach. (Source: AFG)

Website: <http://www.alternativesforgirls.org/>

Phone: 313-361-4000

MINNESOTA

Breaking Free

St. Paul, MN

Services: Breaking Free's mission is to educate and provide services to women and girls who have been victims of commercial sexual exploitation (prostitution/sex-trafficking) and need assistance escaping the violence in their lives. Services include housing, child protection services, and youth outreach. (Source: Breaking Free)

Website: <http://www.breakingfree.net/>

Phone: 651-645-6557

The Freedom and Justice Center

Minneapolis, MN

Services: The Freedom and Justice Center promotes a comprehensive, collaborative and systemic approach to prostitution to provide prostituted women with the level of service they deserve. Services include medical treatment, mental health services, housing, case management, and legal advocacy. (Source: FJC)

Website: <http://www.angelfire.com/mn/fjc/>

Phone: 612-721-6327

Prostitution to Independence, Dignity, and Equality (PRIDE)

Minneapolis, MN

Services: PRIDE is a nationally recognized and highly successful program to help women get out, and stay out, of prostitution. PRIDE is based on self-help, advocacy, and support for women. We also offer outreach and assistance to the children of prostitution victims. Outreach, court advocacy, community presentations and services occur at the Family & Children's Service Lake Street Branch, in jails, correctional facilities, district courts, and other agencies. (Source: PRIDE)

Website: <http://www.everyfamilymatters.org/>

Phone: 612-728-2062

MISSOURI

VERONICA'S Voice

Kansas City, MO

Services: VERONICA'S Voice educates and provides resources to help clients with options to assist them in leaving a life of prostitution, sexual exploitation, drug addiction and violence, and to transition into new lives free from abuse. Survivors direct the programs and work with the clients at the VERONICA'S Voice SAFE Center. Services include housing, court advocacy, and education. (Source: VERONICA'S Voice)

Website: <http://www.veronicasvoice.org/>

Phone: 816-483-7101

NEBRASKA

Salvation Army Wellspring Program

Omaha, NB

Services: TSA operates the Wellspring program which provides support, education, and advocacy for women, men, and children affected by sex trafficking and prostitution. The services provided at Wellspring are designed using a holistic approach which includes group therapy, case management, individual and family therapy, limited material assistance, monthly outings, transportation, and referrals. Wellspring also provides care and support for the children of prostituted persons. (Source: Salvation Army)

Website: <http://www.salvationarmyusa.org/>

NEVADA

Anti-Trafficking League Against Slavery (ATLAS)

Las Vegas, NV

Services: ATLAS is comprised of federal, state and local law enforcement, prosecutors, victim social services programs, community stakeholders, and community supporters. The goals of the task force are to: increase public awareness, train to identify victims/situations of human trafficking, train to investigate and prosecute cases of human trafficking, rescue victims, and prosecute traffickers. They offer social services to CSEC victims. (Source: HumanTrafficking.org)

WestCare

Las Vegas, NV

Services: Services include substance abuse and addiction treatment, shelter for homeless and runaway youth, domestic violence treatment and prevention, and mental health programs. These services are available to adults, children, adolescents, and families; they specialize in helping people traditionally considered difficult to treat, such as those who are indigent, have multiple disorders, or are involved with the criminal justice system. (Source: WestCare)

Website: <http://www.westcare.com/>

Phone: 702-385-2090

NEW JERSEY

Polaris Project

Newark, NJ

Services: The NJ TIP provides case management services to victims to address the lack of specialized services available in New Jersey. Services provided include emergency, short-term and long-term case management services for victims of trafficking. Services provided through case management include: crisis intervention, criminal justice advocacy, court accompaniment, locating resources and referrals, interpretation, emotional support, and more. (Source: Polaris Project)

Website: <http://www.polarisproject.org/>

Phone: 973-624-5454

NEW YORK

Girls Education and Mentoring Services (GEMS)

New York, NY

Services: Girls Educational and Mentoring Services' (GEMS) mission is to empower young women, ages 12-21, who have experienced commercial sexual exploitation and domestic trafficking, to exit the commercial sex industry and develop to their full potential. GEMS is committed to ending commercial sexual exploitation and domestic trafficking of children by changing individual lives, transforming public perception, and revolutionizing the systems and policies that impact sexually exploited youth. Services include housing, mentoring services, court advocacy, and case management. (Source: GEMS)

Website: <http://www.gems-girls.org/>

Phone: 212-926-8089

My Sister's Place

Hudson Valley, NY

Services: My Sisters' Place (MSP) provides comprehensive shelter, advocacy, legal services, and supportive services for victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual abuse, stalking, and human trafficking in Westchester County, New York.

Website: <http://www.mysistersplaceny.org/>

NORTH CAROLINA

Hope House: Eagles Wings Ministries

Asheville, NC

Services: Their mission is to provide a place of seclusion, restoration, and healing for domestic minor sex trafficking victims (U.S. girls under 18 yrs.old). Services include education, case management, spiritual mentorship, life skills, and counseling. (Source: Hope House)

Website: <http://www.hopehousenc.com/>

Phone: 877-276-8023

OHIO

Second Chance

Toledo, OH

Services: Second Chance is a social service program located in Toledo, Ohio which provides comprehensive services to victims of domestic sex trafficking and prostitution. Services include case management, counseling, education, and CSEC support groups. (Source: Second Chance)

Website: <http://www.secondchancetoledo.org/>

OKLAHOMA

The Salvation Army

Oklahoma City, OK

Services: In Oklahoma City, The Salvation Army provides shelter, feeding programs, senior citizen programs, social services, disaster services, youth programs, drug and alcohol rehabilitation, transportation, clothing assistance, Christmas cheer programs and worship programs. CSE services specifically include clothing, transportation, and shelter. (Source: The Salvation Army)

Website: <http://www.salvationarmyokcac.org/>

OREGON

Lola Greene Baldwin Foundation

Portland, OR

Services: The mission of the Baldwin Foundation is three-fold: To help people escape the life of prostitution, survive, and recover from its long-term effects. To provide education about the effects of the sex industry on those used in it, and its effects on the larger community. To educate actual and potential users of prostituted persons about the meaning and consequences of their behavior. Services include crisis intervention, case management, and legal advocacy. (Source: LGBF)

Sexual Assault Resource Center (SARC)

Portland, OR

Services: Their mission is to provide immediate response and support to sexual assault survivors and empower them to heal and regain control of their lives. To minimize the aftermath of harm by providing advocacy, information, and referrals to the survivors and their families. To educate and create awareness surrounding sexual assault to members of the community. Services include case management and mental health services. (Source: SARC)

Website: <http://www.sarcoregon.org/>

TEXAS

LETOT

Dallas, TX

Services: Letot Center is a co-educational short-term residential facility that provides assessment, crisis intervention, emergency shelter care, foster care, non-residential counseling, and referral services for status offenders. The facility has a shelter capacity for 40 youth in residential care. Programming is designed to reunite runaways with their families whenever possible and to prevent youth from committing criminal offenses or from entering the Juvenile Justice System. Individualized treatment plans for each youth and their family are designed to increase healthy protective factors and decrease risk factors associated with delinquency. (Source: LETOT)

Website: <http://dallascountywanted.com/>

WASHINGTON

New Horizons Ministries

Seattle, WA

Services: The staff of New Horizons, both paid and volunteer, establish relationships with youth through street outreach as well as by providing meals, clothing, and other emergency services. New Horizons also provides case management, relational counseling, recreational activities, job mentoring, life discovery classes, and a comprehensive referral system. All of these services are designed to equip youth with the life skills, confidence, and sense of community that are vital for them to successfully exit street life. (Source: New Horizons)

Website: <http://www.nhmin.org/>

Phone: 206-374-0866

YouthCare Safe House

Seattle, WA

Services: YouthCare Safe House provides services specifically for CSEC survivors. Services will include case management, legal advocacy, counseling, housing, and education. (Source: YouthCare)

Website: <http://www.youthcare.org/>

WASHINGTON, DC

Courtney's House

Washington, DC

Services: Courtney's House is committed to providing a safe space and loving home environment -in a therapeutic and emotionally healing atmosphere -for domestic sex trafficked girls between the ages of 12 and 18 years. Courtney's House is dedicated to the mission of ending domestic sex trafficking and commercial sexual exploitation of all children. They focus our efforts on providing long-term group home residency and providing direct services, which include housing, street outreach, and case management. (Source: Courtney's House)

Website: <http://www.courtneyshouse.org/>

FAIR Fund

Washington, DC

Services: FAIR Fund approach combines preventative education workshops, outreach to exploited youth, and art therapy for girl survivors. FAIR Fund provides comprehensive care and services to teen girl survivors of human trafficking and sexual violence. Our model art therapy and economic empowerment program, JewelGirls, supports victimized girls as they transition into being independent young survivors. (Source: FAIR Fund)

Website: <http://www.fairfund.org/>

Phone: 202-265-1505

Helping Individual Prostitutes Survive (HIPS)

Washington, DC

Services: HIPS was founded in 1993 by a coalition of service providers, advocates, and law enforcement officials as an outreach and referral service. HIPS mission is to assist female, male, and transgender individuals engaging in sex work in Washington, DC in leading healthy lives. Utilizing a harm reduction model, HIPS' programs strive to address the impact that HIV/AIDS, sexually transmitted infections, discrimination, poverty, violence and drug use have on the lives of individuals engaging in sex work. Services include legal assistance, emergency housing, and street outreach. (Source: HIPS)

Website: <http://www.hips.org/>

Phone: 202-232-8150

Polaris Project

Washington, DC

Services: Polaris Project operates the Greater DC Trafficking Intervention Program (DC TIP) to combat human trafficking in the District of Columbia, Northern Virginia, and Southern Maryland. Launched in 2002, DC TIP works to create an effective community-based response to curb local human trafficking network activity. DC TIP provides comprehensive services to foreign national and U.S. citizen victims in the Washington, DC metro area and works towards long-term, systemic change. (Source: Polaris Project)

Website: <http://www.polarisproject.org/>

Phone: 202-745-1001

Restoration Ministries

Washington, DC

Services: RM provides a prostitution intervention/prevention program at the youth detention center five times a month to girls 11-17 who have been trafficked or who are at a high-risk of being trafficked. RM hosts a weekly therapy group at the DC Jail for adult females who have been incarcerated for solicitation charges. RM also provides mentoring services and job mentorship.(Source: Restoration Ministries)

Website: <http://www.restorationministriesdc.org/>

WESTERN UNITED STATES

Salvation Army Network for Emergency Trafficking Services (NETS)

Services: NETS was the first regional approach to trafficking victim services, covering most of the Western United States. It allowed for intensive proactive efforts in 4 cities: Denver, Las Vegas, Anchorage and El Paso. All of these programs are direct services programs dedicated to providing comprehensive services to the victims of human trafficking. All the task forces are involved in services to victims, public awareness, and training and development of protocols to guide the coordinated response to victims. (Source: Salvation Army)

Website: <http://www.salvationarmyusa.org/>

WISCONSIN

Project Respect

Madison, WI

Services: Project Respect provides a safe environment and essential community services for women who are trying to leave prostitution: peer support, advocacy, case management, counseling, and crisis intervention are all part of Project Respect. The goal is to address a woman's health, economic, and family needs, so she can develop a safe, constructive lifestyle. (Source: City of Madison)

Phone: 608-283-6435