Old Business:

North Quarter Update: Cheryl Campbell.
The Gold Country Casino conference room will hold 80 people with room for quilts. Cost of lunch will be $12.50. We can bring in deserts.
The gift will be foot pedal slip stopper. A wearable art show will be the presentation.

We would like to honor Clara Midwood at the meeting. She will be 97 that month and has been our North Quarter rep. for years.
We will bring a birthday cake.

Christmas Party Update: Dorothy Moyle-Smith. Sign up for food was passed around by Marge Redding. Committee members have met and gotten organized. There is money in the hospitality budget to purchase food and paper goods. Discussion of possible games.

New Business:

Fire Victims Donations: Sharon Helton.
FEMA and the counties have stepped in to help victims to get cleaned up and start the reconstruction. One woman, in her 80's did not have home owner's insurance and her well was contaminated by the fire.

Judy Stryker made the motion and Cheryl Campbell seconded that we support the idea of donating $1,000 to Calvary Chapel of the Foothills to help her. Approved.

Jan Abramson suggested we contact the Mennonite Church to see if they would like fabrics, or UFO's to replace their lost quilts.
Jan Owens will contact them.

Reports:

Treasurer's Report: Marla Vaughn. All balances are good. We need to look at the Moonlighter's budget for next year. We are over on properties. Everything else looks fine.
Think about sponsoring another scholarship.

We really need to start training replacements officers earlier and we also need to look at replicating information in more than one place in case of loses.

Vice President, Speakers: Dorothy Welton.
Luara Fraga will speak about "Dear Jane Quilts." We have purchased material to make a new screen.

Vice President, Workshops: Judy Hohman.
Nothing in December. January 4th will be an open sew day.

Quilt Coordinator: Sharon Helton. We made $3,100 clear on the quilt this year. The next quilt will be ready in January.

Boutique: Dorothy Moyle-Smith. Has lots of donated fabric but, people are not taking fabric.
Will bring it to workshops or make it available
to Door Prizes and other committees.

Chairperson's Reports:

BOM: Susan Coyle, Linda Pearson. Will give out a BOM in November to be turned in in January.
