

Party Crasher Plus

Inhale: Art. Music. Imagination.

Photos by Frankie Steele

zens of artists and their patrons gathered on Saturday night at Bend Winery in downtown for the first of a series of shows based elements. The focus of Inhale was, of course, air, and the works ayed centered around the precious gas we take for granted. he Party Crasher stopped by and took a deep breath. ➔

Want to see more? Check out the extended photo gallery www.velocityweekly.com.

Sick Posante, left, Wilfred Seig III and David Maasberg sipped wine and talked about art.

Some guests performed an impromptu "séance." Clockwise from lower-left, Jake Heustis, J. Lowe, F. Martin, Jay Jordan and Thea Lura.

From left: Rita Cameron, Pam Swisher and Jess Rierideau.

Marissa Barns, left, and artist Cassandra Barns, pictured with one of Cassandra's pieces.

Sara Robine and Teresa Huan organize the event.

From left: Pier Vendette, Jack Norris and Ros Wallace.