

Let Justice Roll

Words and music by Nathan Rowe

Intro/Interlude: E Bm7 A A2 (x2)

VERSE 1:

E C#m7 A B E
War is raging in the city, lives are breaking, hear their cry
E C#m7 A B E
The addicted, poor and broken, lonely widow, orphan child

PRE-CHORUS 1

C#m7 B A
Who will live untainted by the world?
F#m E/G# B
Who will die for the gospel of our King?
C#m7 B F#7 A
Who will hear the weeping of our Lord? He calls

CHORUS:

C#m7 B A
Who will be my hands, my feet, to the lost, the last and least?
C#m7 A
Who will stand? Who will go?
C#m7 B A
Who will burn and show my light? Who will break the chains and fight?
C#m7 A (last time, repeat)
Who will stand? Who will go?
E Bm7 A A2
Let justice roll

VERSE 2:

There's a river that is flowing full of justice, mercy and grace
From the Father to the nations, every color, every race

PRE-CHORUS 2

Will you live untainted by the world?
Will you die for the gospel of our King?
Will you hear the weeping of our Lord? He calls

CHORUS 2:

Will you...

CHORUS 3:

We will...
