

Chicago Alliance Against Sexual Exploitation
Senior Staff Attorney

The Chicago Alliance Against Sexual Exploitation (CAASE) seeks applicants for a full-time Senior Staff Attorney. CAASE addresses the culture, institutions, and individuals that perpetrate, profit from, or support sexual exploitation. Our work includes prevention, policy reform, community engagement, and legal services.

CAASE staff attorneys utilize legal representation of survivors of sexual assault and prostitution to further the organization's mission to end sexual exploitation. CAASE's direct legal services include victims' rights advocacy within the context of the criminal justice system, civil legal representation using a variety of civil laws specific to Illinois and related to sexual assault and prostitution, and protection of the panoply of other legal rights that victims have in the context of their schooling, their workplace, and their housing. CAASE does not engage in family law or criminal defense work.

Function: The Senior Staff Attorney will be involved in all aspects of CAASE's substantive legal work – from development of legal strategies to implementation. They will handle a variety of complex cases within the legal department, focusing on victims' rights in criminal cases; manage CAASE's relationships with community partners and coalitions as assigned; and take on additional supervisory duties in support of and as assigned by the Managing Attorney.

Direct Legal Services

The Senior Staff Attorney will carry an active caseload of up to 20 clients and is expected to work independently according to the organization's policies and procedures. Specific tasks will include:

- Meet with, assess comprehensive legal needs of, and provide legal advice and representation to victims of sexual assault and exploitation through prostitution.
- Provide advocacy and representation to victims seeking to have the criminal justice system investigate and prosecute perpetrators of sexual assault and exploitation.
- Utilize the Illinois Crime Victim Bill of Rights to represent survivors of sexual assault as a victims' attorney within the criminal court.
- Address the civil legal needs of victims related to privacy, immigration, physical safety, education, employment, housing, and financial compensation matters.
- Utilize civil rights remedies, including the Illinois Civil No Contact Order Act, to represent survivors of sexual assault and exploitation in civil matters collateral to their criminal cases.
- Maintain organized and detailed case files and database.

Program Leadership and Supervision

- Oversee, implement, evaluate, and update all aspects of CAASE's policy and procedures in representing survivors under the Illinois Crime Victim Bill of Rights in the criminal justice process, including working with the CAASE Policy Department and CAASE Senior Director, Programs, on issues related to city and state criminal justice policy.
- Provide advice, consultation and mentoring to junior attorneys and pro bono attorneys concerning substantive and procedural areas of law relating to crime victims' rights and the criminal justice process, including assisting them in developing creative and innovative legal strategies.
- Serve in a co-counsel role for pro bono and junior attorneys as needed.

- Supervise interns and fellows, including providing assistance with recruitment, selection, and orientation of interns, as well as overall management of the legal intern and fellowship programs as assigned by the Managing Attorney.

External Partnerships and Community Engagement

- Collaborate with Chicago-based rape crisis centers and victim advocates in providing comprehensive services to victims; manage partnership with specific rape crisis centers as assigned.
- Develop and present educational programming on CAASE's legal services program and the legal rights of survivors for Chicago-area attorneys, community leaders and rape crisis center advocates.
- Represent CAASE and lead CAASE's involvement in community-based coalitions, task forces and campaigns as assigned by the Managing Attorney.
- Seek out, foster, and engage in opportunities to represent CAASE through public speaking and presentations, both locally and nationally.

Status: Full time, exempt.
