PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

We do, we have a quilt show? We don't have enough to do? To keep us out of trouble? To see if we can manage not to go crazy? These thoughts keep rambling through my head as the last minute details are being attended to.

In reality, it is a time to share all the hard work that has been done by guild members over the past few years. It is a moment to "show off" and receive kudos for what has been accomplished. It is also an opportunity to raise funds to continue the work that the guild does. A big part of the fund raising will be accomplished by the amazing boutique items and the wonderful raffle baskets. Thanks to everyone for all the little details you are attending to. Be sure to come and do everything you can to help make this show a success

Marla Vaughn 990 3115

V-President: This October brings Patricia Knoechel of Quilt in a Day to Oroville. She will be here on Thursday, October 13th. She will present her program at 10:00 a.m. and then again at 6:00 p.m. Patricia will come with new books, and new patterns, a combination of Modern Quilts and Classic Quilts. She demonstrates, some of the sewing techniques used in the patterns, and will have examples of many of the quilts. She is always lots of fun.

There will be opportunities for shopping also.

Please invite any of your quilting friends whether they are members of the guild or not.

November we have scheduled Julie Silber from Berkeley. She will come with lots of antique quilts to show us. Dorothy Welton 533-2826

Use a mailing label on each so the winners can thank you for their bounty.

Terri Russell 533-8637

BEST OF SHOW; It was great fun to see the large best of show ribbon on my quilt but a bit of a disappointment that no check came with it, unlike at the Silver Dollar Fair where Ann Harvey won $100 for her Best of Show. So I guess we know now where to enter.

I have been asked to bring the quilt in for Show and Tell and will do so soon. It took a long time to make and I still add details once in while.

Moonlighter's President message:

It is getting close to the Quilt Show and you can feel the excitement in the room. Many of you are entering quite a few projects and quilts and some just one or two, but all of us together are aiming to make a wonderful and successful show for all to enjoy. I know that for myself, this is the first time entering a show, for that matter, even sewing a sleeve on my quilt! {my quilts are on beds or laps, never hung} so it's a whole new adventure for me. I also want to thank everyone who participated in making things for the boutique and for bringing items for the raffle baskets! Working together makes a successful event for everyone. Now that fall is in the air, we tend to want to make "warm" items, so remember to finish up on your PUP projects too! Have a beautiful month and see you in October! Happy Quilting, Yvonne
