

Why Legalizing Prostitution Promotes Sex Trafficking

Join experts Jody Raphael, a DePaul Senior Research Fellow, and Kaethe Morris Hoffer, the Executive Director of the Chicago Alliance Against Sexual Exploitation, for a free lunch and a discussion on Professor Raphael's newly published article:

Decriminalization of Prostitution: The Soros Effect.

(<http://digitalcommons.uri.edu/dignity/vol3/iss1/1/>)

Many advocates and academics urge total decriminalization of prostitution, which can have serious ramifications for eliminating sex trafficking and other forms of exploitation. Come learn about how "fake news" is influencing public policy.

 DEPAUL UNIVERSITY
COLLEGE OF LAW
Schiller DuCanto & Fleck Family Law Center

 DEPAUL UNIVERSITY
COLLEGE OF LAW
Center for Public Interest Law

Thursday, March 22, 2018
Lunch 11:30am-12:00pm
Discussion 12:00pm-1:30pm
DePaul University College of Law
25 E. Jackson Blvd., Chicago
Rooms 241 & 242
RSVP to kliss3@depaul.edu

DePaul University College of Law is an accredited CLE provider.

This event has been approved for up to 1.5 hours of general CLE credits.