Kenroy Home to Introduce New Line of Fountains at Dallas Show

Jacksonville, FL, January 15, 2009—Kenroy Home announced today that it will be introducing significant additions to its line of fountains. With a comprehensive group of fountain products, including indoor, outdoor, floor, wall, and tabletop, Kenroy Home now offers one of the largest selections of any fountain manufacturer.

The complete line of fountains will be introduced at the Dallas International Lighting Market, held January 15-19, 2009. Kenroy's space, which will also showcase its lighting lines, is Suite 4929.

Kenroy Home fountains are designed to appeal to both the eye and the wallet. While many residential and commercial fountains sell for upwards of $1,000, comparable Kenroy Home fountains will retail from $250 to $500. They are light and easy to assemble, with most models weighing less than 80 pounds and able to fit into the back of an SUV or minivan. All can be assembled by one person in less than 20 minutes. Many of the fountains have built-in lights, and a number utilize energy-efficient LEDs. Pumps and lights run on UL-approved low-voltage transformers, ensuring safe and reliable operation.

Kenroy Home's fountains are made from a variety of materials, including natural slate, copper, stainless steel, and poly-resin, and are available in numerous styles, from classical to casual to contemporary. Indoor models are designed with "splash-free" technology, ensuring clean operation, while outdoor models complement any garden or patio. Sizes range from small tabletop accent pieces to large "urns" for the outdoors.

Notable introductions include Flora, which has room for a planter within the fountain, Chronos, which features a built-in clock, and the Windows, Aurora, and Lane fountains, Kenroy's tallest at an impressive 64 inch height. Rugged natural slate gives an elegant touch to Retreat and Midstream, while Bocce echoes the playfulness of its namesake carved balls.
