Thank You, Bible Teachers!

A huge debt of gratitude is owed to those of our congregation who volunteer to teach in our Bible classes.

A debt of gratitude is owed to you because teaching the Bible is valuable and vital. Learning God's word is the only way to know the truth (Jn. 8:31-32). It is the only way to be properly equipped to serve God (2 Tim. 3:16-17). You help us to grow in our knowledge of God and his will (2 Pet. 3:18). You help our children grow up with a steady spiritual diet of godly instruction.

A debt of gratitude is owed to you because of the amount of time you are willing to devote to this task. You have the same demands on your time during the week as everyone else. Yet, in addition to all the other duties you must perform, you choose to invest time in preparing and presenting Bible lessons to us and to our children.

So, here's to all of you who help in our Bible teaching program. Your dedication and work mean much to us, and we deeply appreciate what you do.

See you Sunday, in Bible class...

David

YOUTH CORNER

By: Thomas Williams

We have some talented kids! One of the many blessings of being a youth minister is that you get to spend time attending some of the extra-curricular activities that our youth are a part of. Now, unfortunately I miss a lot of the numerous games and performances, but when I do get to be there, it is always a blessing.

This past week, I attended a concert of the many different bands from Arlington Middle/High School (Concert band, wind ensemble, etc). Over the course of the night 4 different members of our youth group performed. They all did wonderful!

There are so many of our youth that are involved in athletics. Our group is filled with basketball, soccer, and baseball players. Anytime I get to see one of their games, it is a great time.

My favorite verses in the Bible are James 1:2-4. They teach us the lesson that it is our difficulties and trials that strengthen us in our faith. Almost every time I talk about this lesson, I always relate it to learning a sport or an instrument. The only way you will ever get better is by pushing through the hard times with perseverance. I am thankful that our teens have the opportunity to learn the truth of this lesson through their activities. I hope, pray, and strive that they will apply the discipline they learn on the field/stage to their faith, but with an even bigger passion. God bless you all this week!
