

In You I Wait

My eyes have seen struggles
Fall upon this land
The trees, they bear no fruit
The land, it bears no food

I've heard of your fame
I stand in awe of all your deeds
Renew them in this day
Remember your mercy

*O, Lord, how long must I cry?
Open my eyes, show me your way
O, Lord, in you I wait
You've opened my eyes, you've shown me your way
To your grace
You've show me your way to your grace*

Show me what it means
To wait upon your name
To trust in your silence
To trust in your promise

I know that you are good
Your ways they are eternal
I will rejoice
Sing of salvation

I will sing,
And I'll rejoice,
Yes I'll rejoice,
My God my savior
