

GEORGETOWN WORKING LEAGUE
P.O. Box 262
GEORGETOWN, ME 04548

The Georgetown Working League is an organization of women, founded in 1913, dedicated to supporting community pride and spirit through scholarships for deserving students, as well as contributing to many community institutions.

In the past, the League has managed the Josephine Hooker Shain Scholarship and the Georgetown Working League Scholarship. It has also administered the Woodex Bearing Company Scholarships, the Riggs Cove Foundation Scholarship, the Benjamin Riggs Scholarship, and the Robinhood Marine Center Scholarship.

Scholarships are awarded on a yearly basis. You are encouraged to apply each year, whether or not you previously have been awarded a scholarship.

Eligibility Requirements: To be eligible for one of these scholarships, you must:

1. Be a resident of Georgetown, Maine.
2. Have been accepted or wait listed* at an accredited school for further advanced education - trade school, college, or university.

Scholarship Requirements: To apply for one of these scholarships, you must:

1. Obtain instructions and an application form from your high school guidance counselor, from the Georgetown Working League Scholarship Committee (address below), or from the Georgetown Town Office.
2. Complete the application form in your own handwriting and in ink.
3. Gather all supplemental materials: application, essay, transcript, and a copy of acceptance or wait list letter*.
4. Submit the application and supplemental materials in one envelope postmarked no later than April 30th to:

Georgetown Working League
Scholarship Committee
P.O. Box 262
Georgetown, ME 04548

5. No e-mailed, faxed, or hand delivered applications will be accepted!
6. If you fail to enclose the required information, and/or submit it late, your application will be automatically disqualified.

**If wait listed, please mail a copy of your acceptance letter when received.*