BIG JIM'S GEMS

VBS got off to a rousing start this morning! We had 40 learners and volunteers! And everybody seemed to have had a good time! Check out our facebook page and our website, webcbeaumont.org, and see for yourself! Many thanks to Flora Jean Boothe, our VBS Director; George Pratt and JoLaine Watson for keeping our records; Lena and Robert Adams in the 3rd-4th-5th grades; Donna Gabrysch and Dot Williams, 1st-2nd grades; Sue Salles and Dell Lambdin in Kindergarten; Marlene Boothe and Jackie Scifres in Preschool and Sherilyn Goodman volunteering in the Nursery! Also, Carol Weishampel, Missions; Jeannie Youngblood and Della Colley in Crafts; Dolores Hernandez and Mildred Scarborough, refreshments; and our helpers Johnny Watson, Ward Nusom, Sara Root, JoAnn Baize and David Salles! What a Crew! Especially do we appreciate our Worship Leader and Musical Director, Barbara Amy and our Activities Leader, Laurie Hayes. Finally, to FBC, Silsbee, for the use of the VBS props! And of course, many thanks to our learners and parents who have participated with us in our 2013 VBS! I hope I didn't forget anyone!

By the time most of you receive this newsletter our VBS will almost be over! But, if time hasn't expired, pray for our school and our Parents Night and Recognition Service, Friday at 6:30 pm. I can't wait for next year! After twenty-six plus years, Christian Life Crisis Intervention, Inc. is in the process of redefining itself after the death of Dion Ainsworth, our Executive Director. A committee is working to acquire leadership to help keep the ministry moving forward. Funding remains a critical issue. Money is good, but we can also use in-kind and capital donations that can be turned into liquid assets. If you can help, please do. Pray for us as we continue to touch hundreds, even thousands of lives through this ministry! David, Sue and I will be in Garland the weekend of August 11, celebrating the 2nd birthday of James Salles! We will be back in the office Tuesday, August 13. In my absence, our local Gideon Camp will present the morning message and Chaplain Greg Schwartz of Baptist Hospital will speak in the evening service. Wayne Monk, Music Minister at Good Shepherd in Silsbee, and SMOSET member, will direct the music for both services. Also, Jill Fontenot, Handbell Director for FBC, Silsbee, will play the piano in Sue's absence. Bless your hearts for all you do for our Lord. He is coming quickly and His reward is with Him! Look up! "Your redemption draweth nigh!" In Christ Alone!

 Big Jim

Sunset

A mother sat with her young son, gazing at a beautiful sunset. "Just imagine," she said, "God created all this beauty." The young son replied, "Yea, and with just one hand." The mother asked why he would say that. "Well, they told us in Sunday School that His Son was sitting on his right hand."
