Steven Zevitas Gallery is pleased to announce the opening of Sex, Drugs and Rock + Roll, a group exhibition featuring the work of nine emerging artists. The exhibition will be on view from Thursday, October 16 until Saturday, November 22, 2008.

Sex, Drugs and Rock + Roll brings together the work of nine artists, all of whom actively explore aspects of what can broadly be referred to as counter culture. This range of subject matter has been mined by an increasing number of artists in recent years, many of whom are reacting to a global culture that has become largely destabilized. While all the included artists are drawn to obstreperous subject matter, they are equally united by their extraordinary technical gifts. Indeed, one of the show's aims is to strike a careful balance between charged content and carefully considered facture.

Sex, Drugs and Rock + Roll includes the work of gallery artists Peregrine Honig, Michael Krueger and David X. Levine, as well as that of John Copeland, Simon English, Wes Lang, Allison Schulnik, Zak Smith and Joe Wardwell. The show will open on Thursday, October 16 and continue through November 22, 2008. There will be an artist reception on Friday, November 7 from 5:30 – 7:30.
