

Christ Is All

The treasures of this world will slowly fade away
My flesh will fail me yet my loved ones will pass away
But the grace of my lord is all that I can claim
Jesus you are the Christ my great precious reward

*Christ is all
All that I can claim
Death has been destroyed
Everlasting remains*

The worries of this world are beating at my door
I cry for your strength as the battle rages on
But the grace of my lord is all that I can claim
Jesus you are the Christ my great precious reward

I will boast
In Jesus Christ
I am weak
But he is might
