

I Adore You

May the desires of my soul be found in you
May the passions of my heart be found in you
Your love is jealous
Your love pursues
There is none like you

I adore you my savior
You are forever mine
No other name is worthy of praise
I adore you my savior,
Forever mine

May the worries of my mind rest in you
May the trials of my life draw me to you
Your love is jealous
Your love pursues
There is none like you

May the risen Christ
Be the center of my life
Be all my joy and adoration
