

breastfeed

exhibition of paintings by

LEANNE PEARCE

curated by Adriana Cerne

Feeds:

Feed 1 | Private View

Tuesday 28th February

Private View 6.30 - 9pm

(RSVP Guest list) info@leydengallery.com

Feed 2 | Desperate Artwives Takeover

Thursday 2nd March

For the Whitechapel Gallery First Thursday of March, and to coincide with Leanne Pearce's Breastfeeding exhibition, Desperate Artwives will stage a 'takeover' of Leyden Gallery, and present a curated programme of performances and interventions.

6.30 - 9.30pm (bar open late)

(RSVP Guest list) <https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/feed-2-desperate-artwives-takeover-of-leyden-gallery-tickets-32153144922>

Feed 3 | Artist in Conversation

Wednesday 8th March

On international Woman's Day we host a discussion between Leanne Pearce artist in conversation with Anna McNay, Freelance Art Writer Deputy Editor, State Magazine

6.30 – 8.30pm

(ticketed event)

Feed 4 | Maternal Matters: Breastfeeding in art - a panel discussion
Saturday 11th March

Dr Lisa Baraitser MAMSIE (Birkbeck Department of Psychosocial studies University of London, A major strand of her research has centred on the fraught relations, as well as creative tensions, between motherhood, female subjectivities and ethics. Lisa Baraitser is the author of Maternal Encounters and winner of the 2009 Feminist & Women's Studies Association (UK & Ireland).

Dr Elena Marchevska (Senior Lecturer Southbank University) A practitioner, academic and researcher who writes extensively on the issues of belonging, female body and the border and intergenerational trauma.

Dr Hermione Wiltshire Senior Lecturer Royal College of Art. Her practice focuses on photography, sculpture, architecture and performance, thematically revolving around maternity and creative practice in relation to Modernism, photography and physical image.

Amy Dignam & Dyana Gravina, Artists & activists, are founding members of the ProCreate project and Mother House

4-7pm

(Ticketed event) <http://www.wegottickets.com/event/391740>

Feed 5 | Sybarite Nights
Friday 17th March

Sybarite Nights Music/performance/cabaret

8 – 11pm

(Ticketed event)

Feed 6 | Performance and presentation
Saturday 25th March

performance/screening

Sharon Tugwell: Presents on the intersection of motherhood and digital culture through an exploration of the significance of breastfeeding selfies

Feed 7 | Closing Party
Saturday 1st April Finissage party 6.30 – 11pm