Dear

The Georgetown Working League awards several scholarships each year to graduating seniors or others interested in additional education who are residents of Georgetown. I am writing to you on behalf of the League to inform you of several scholarships and how to apply.

Scholarships are awarded to Georgetown residents who are, or plan to be, enrolled in some form of continuing education at accredited institutions of higher learning - academic, technical or professional. The Working League finances two scholarships - the Josephine Hooker Shain Scholarship and the Georgetown Working League Scholarship. Among the scholarships the League has administered are: the Woodex Bearing Company Scholarship, the Riggs Cove Foundation Scholarship, the Benjamin Riggs Scholarship, and the Robinhood Marine Center Scholarship.

Candidates are required to fill out an application form in their own handwriting and in ink. This form is enclosed with a list of requirements. Should you require additional forms, they are available at our website, www.georgetownworkingleague.org, the Town Office, or by writing to the Georgetown Working League at the above address. No emailed or faxed applications will be accepted. Please follow all instructions with care. Note that the scholarship committee considers the essay portion of the application very seriously. If you fail to follow instructions, your application will automatically be disqualified.

All applications must be mailed and postmarked by April 30. (Hand delivery is not accepted.)

The League's scholarship committee will announce all recipients in June. If you have any questions during this process, please contact me at 207-371-2263. We look forward to receiving an application from you.

Best Regards,

Barbara Andreotta
Scholarship Committee Chair
