

I Will Sing

In my suffering open my eyes
To the people around me
In my weakness
Strength will arise
From your spirit with in me
Let your comfort overflow and fill my life

*I will sing, sing of your mercy
I will sing, sing of your love
Cause I've been redeemed, redeemed by your victory
As you give me your comfort and strength
I will sing*

In my doubting conquer my fears
Speak your truth right to me
In my worries grant me your peace
That transcends understanding
Let your comfort overflow and fill my life

You gave it all for me
You shed your blood for me
I know your word stands true
With all I have I will sing
