Eduardo A Cabrer was born in Santurce, Puerto Rico in 1976. From a young age he started experimenting with different mediums to express his emotions and his identity while further defining his relationship with his surroundings.

He went on to pursue his education in arts at the University of Miami, Universidad del Sagrado Corazón and at the George Washington University, where he completed a Masters Degree in Fine Arts (2002).

Recently he has continued studies in the School of Visual Arts Summer Residency program (2016) and in the Vermont Studio Center Residency (2017)

He is actively exploring new mediums and ways to combine learned crafts to create new possibilities of expression. Cabrer is in a constant search for new artistic ways to express how he feels about his surroundings and the relationship with his identity. His journey has taken him from simple graphite drawings to combining acrylics, oils, pastels, resin, tapes and enamels over steel, canvas and wood.
