Who can keep up? There are so many changes. In some fields, the rate of change is lightning fast. In others, it seems snail slow. Technology seems to evolve so fast that one's gadget is outdated almost as soon as she or he walks out of the store with it. The way those gadgets are used also changes, so that one can barely keep up with the newly developing social media methods. (Have you even heard of Vero)?

Clothing styles also change – maybe not quite as fast as technology, but they do change. Can you believe that men used to wear suits and ties to baseball games?! I knew an older man once who wore a tie always – even when he mowed his lawn. He came from a different era than I.

Some changes improve life while other changes unnecessarily complicate life. There is always change. There is something, however, that never changes. “Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and forever” (Heb. 13:8; cf. Mal. 3:6). In the swirl of change, one can always count on the Lord to be the same. He will always be there for you (Heb. 13:5-6). You can always lean on him.

See you Sunday, leaning on the Lord...

The word “whoever” occurs often in the New Testament. It is a word that indicates the breadth of possibility. It is also a word that indicates conditionality. What is offered is available to all, but it is received only by those who meet the stated condition. Consider some examples from the Gospel of John.

John 3:14-16 And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so must the Son of Man be lifted up, that whoever believes in him may have eternal life. For God so loved the world, that he gave his only Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life.

John 3:18 Whoever believes in him is not condemned, but whoever does not believe is condemned already, because he has not believed in the name of the only Son of God.

John 3:36 Whoever believes in the Son has eternal life; whoever does not obey the Son shall not see life, but the wrath of God remains on him.

John 6:35 Jesus said to them, “I am the bread of life; whoever comes to me shall not hunger, and whoever believes in me shall never thirst.”

John 8:12 Again Jesus spoke to them, saying, “I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will not walk in darkness, but will have the light of life.”

John 8:47 Whoever is of God hears the words of God. The reason why you do not hear them is that you are not of God.

John 11:25-26 Jesus said to her, “I am the resurrection and the life. Whoever believes in me, though he die, yet shall he live, and everyone who lives and believes in me shall never die. Do you believe this?”

John 12:25 Whoever loves his life loses it, and whoever hates his life in this world will keep it for eternal life.

John 13:20 Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever receives the one I send receives me, and whoever receives me receives the one who sent me.

John 14:21 Whoever has my commandments and keeps them, he it is who loves me. And he who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and manifest myself to him.

John 14:24 Whoever does not love me does not keep my words. And the word that you hear is not mine but the Father's who sent me.

John 15:5-6 I am the vine; you are the branches. Whoever abides in me and I in him, he it is that bears much fruit, for apart from me you can do nothing.

NEW ELDERS

After several weeks of studying the Scriptures on the qualifications of elders, two men have been chosen to serve in that capacity. Mike Barrios and David South were presented to the congregation last Sunday and installed as elders. This brings our number of elders to six: Ron Barker, Mike Barrios, Mark Hillis, Dick Holt, Charles Mars and David South. We appreciate all these men being willing to serve this congregation and we need to support and encourage them.

We are planning a new directory soon and we need to have all of our information correct!
Do you have a change of address or a new phone number?
Have you done away with your home land line phone?
Do you have a new e-mail address?
Please keep the church informed of any changes that you have made.

WHAT A SUCCESS!

Thanks to all who were involved with our VBS this year!

So many of you put in hours and hours behind the scenes as well as those who actively helped with the actual presentation. Thank you so much for all your time, talents and work!
