CASTELL DEL REMEI (D.O. Costers del Segre, Spain)

THE WINERY

Castell del Remei is located in Penelles (D.O. Costers del Segre, Spain) and was built in 1780. By the 19th century, they had 988 acres of local varietals of grapes, and were the first Catalan winery to sell "aged wine" on the market. They received their first award in 1887, the gold medal at the Brussels International Expo. In 1902, Castell del Remei established a guide for their workers on how to care and provide for the vineyards (Manaments pels Mitgers). It is a reflection of their admiration and respect for the vineyards, and soils, and consistency of the vineyard work. Castell del Remei is the 4th oldest brand in Spain.

The Castell del Remei estate currently consists of six adjoining buildings partially built underground to avoid temperature variations. Half of the winery is dedicated to barrel aging wines primarily in French oak barrels. The estate also includes a restaurant, a castle that was built in 1780, and a church devoted to the Virgin of Remei.

Today, Castell del Remei manages 345 acres of vineyards. They plant a mixture of grape varieties: Tempranillo, Garnacha, Syrah, Merlot, and Cabernet Sauvignon. The average age of the vines is 20 years old, while some garnachas are more than 40 years old.

The vineyards are located at 2,000 feet above sea level. The soil is mainly calcareous (chalky), but includes some limestone. There is marked diversity of the soils in the estate that contributes to the enormous wealth of nuances typical of Castell del Remei wines.

CRITICS AND REVIEWS:

-Vinous Media "Mediterranean Spain: Diversity and Consistency, by Josh Reynolds, Apr '19 gave 90 points to Castell Del Remei 2017 Gotim Bru. "Inky ruby. Expansive dark berry preserve, violet and mocha scents are energized by a spicy nuance that gains strength as the wine opens up. Lush and open-knit, offering pliant, appealingly sweet blackberry and cherry-cola flavors that tighten up slowly on the back half. Smooth, velvety, even tannins sneak in on the clinging finish."

Displays lively, spice-accented cherry and cassis qualities on the fragrant nose, along with hints of smokiness and licorice that build steadily with air. Sweet and seamless in texture, offering pliant black/blue fruit flavors and a touch of candied flowers. Shows very good energy and lingering sweetness on the finish, which is given shape by smooth, even tannins."
