Apologetics Series Scheduled

Our summer schedule will be somewhat different this year. We have enjoyed for several years having a “summer series” on Wednesday nights. We have been taught and encouraged by a variety of speakers on Wednesday nights through the summer. This has been a good event, and we will probably continue it.

This year, however, we will not have our typical summer series. Instead, we have planned a special series of studies on six Wednesday nights from August 29th through October 17th. This will be three sets of two Wednesday nights, with a week break between them. (Thus, August 29th and September 5th; then September 19th and 26th; then October 10th and 17th).

On these six Wednesday nights, Dr. Ralph Gilmore from Freed-Hardeman University will present lessons on Christian Evidences.

We anticipate that this will be a challenging and edifying time of study.

See you Sunday, believing in God...

David

Good Medicine

“A joyful heart is good medicine” (Prov. 17:22). Occasionally health professionals attempt to examine the benefits of laughter. Most agree that it does have a positive impact. Sometimes we just need to laugh. It is even better, in my judgment, if a good lesson can be learned along with the laugh. Maybe you will find some of the following items funny enough for a chuckle – and make yourself a little healthier. If you learn something good in the process, so much the better. I have culled these from various sources, and most of them were presented with no citation for origin. – David

Parents can tell but never teach, unless they practice what they preach.

Men are from earth. Women are from earth. Deal with it.

“By all means marry. If you get a good wife, you’ll be happy. If you get a bad one, you’ll become a philosopher” (Socrates – a philosopher).

Men marry women with the hope they will never change. Women marry men with the hope they will change. Invariably they are both disappointed. (Except those who learn to see and appreciate their spouses on a higher level).

No husband has ever been shot while doing the dishes. (Do I hear any amens from the women?)

You never test the depth of a river with both feet.

War does not determine who is right, it determines who is left.

You can lead a fool to wisdom, but you can’t make him think.

If you look like your passport photo, you probably need the trip.

Man who sneezes without hanky takes matters into own hands.

“The Bible tells us to love our neighbors and also to love our enemies; probably because generally they are the same people” (Gilbert Chesterton).

A ship in the harbor is safe, but that is not what ships are built for.

“Sometimes I wonder whether the world is being run by smart people who are putting us on, or by imbeciles who really mean it” (Mark Twain).

You cannot get to the top by sitting on your bottom.

Going to church does not make you a Christian any more than going to a garage makes you a mechanic.

If you are too open-minded, your brains will fall out.

A balanced diet is a cookie in each hand.

YOUTH CORNER

Thomas Williams

It’s that time for the weekly greeting again! I hope you all are doing wonderfully. This past week was spring break for our Youth group, so a number of our members had the opportunity to travel to places all over the country and enjoy the time with their families. I’m sure this was a wonderful blessing for them.

The few of us who remained in Memphis had a wonderful class this last Wednesday. Since the numbers were smaller we decided to have class down the street at Sonic. I appreciate these opportunities to have class in different settings, I find that switching up from the norm can really effect the mood of a class. This particular setting (Sonic) lent itself to being more conversational, and less formal. The ice cream and drinks didn’t hurt either!

This is a bit of a tangent, but reflecting on this experience made me think about something I’m very thankful for. I think a wonderful blessing we have in the New Covenant, is that we no longer require a specific building to be our place of worship. Since God ripped the Temple curtain open, we understand that it doesn’t matter where we are, we can worship there. Whether in a Church building, or someone’s house, from the top of a mountain, to a table at Sonic! The church can worship anywhere, because God is everywhere. How amazing is that! Thank you all, I hope you have a blessed week.

2018 TORCH MISSION TRIP

June 28th – July 8th are the dates for the Summer 2018 Torch Mission trip to Honduras. Please pray for the 13 individuals from Woodland Hills who have committed to make the trip this summer.

VBS 2018

Vacation Bible School seems a long way off, but it is just around the corner. Start making your plans to attend and bring lots of folks with you this year! Our dates for VBS this year are June 10-13 and workday is June 2nd. We can always use lots of help, so please see Robbie Seward, Matt Mitchell or Renee Barrios to secure your special spot. A new theme is planned for this year’s VBS and it will be great!
