NEWS BRIEF
COUNCILLORS TAKE THE MIC
Students’ Council representatives took part in SUBstage last Thursday for a town-hall meeting, in which students asked them questions about their work in the Students’ Union.
The seven councillors who participated fielded questions on a wide range of topics, including student affairs, financial management, and the union’s role in larger community issues.
The councillors also discussed the bylaw surrounding dedicated fees.
Editorial Staff
Kathryn Dutchak
FeNice
Photoshop is used for raster images. Adobe Acrobat optical film scanner. Adobe InDesign is used for layout.
Scanjet flatbed scanners, and a Nikon Super Cool Scan colloquium.

complaints
Comments, concerns, or complaints about the operation of the Gateway should be addressed to the editor-in-chief. The Gateway is published by the Gateway Student Foundation Society, a student body created in accordance with the Societies Act of Alberta.

copyright
All individuals appearing in the Gateway have copyright over their images, and may request permission before use.

disclaimers
The Gateway is in no way responsible for the setting, accuracy, or originality of the content of advertisements and of the information conveyed in the online and print versions of the Gateway.

colophon
The Gateway is produced using Macintosh computers, HP color laser printers, and a Colortrac Scan Imager 2010. All photographs are printed on a Kodak paper. All illustrations are Adobe type treatments. Adobe Acrobat is used for on-line display of the Gateway's contents, and Adobe Photoshop is used for vector images. Adobe Acrobat is used for on-line display of the Gateway's contents, and Adobe Photoshop is used for vector images. Adobe Photoshop is used for vector images. Adobe Acrobat is used for on-line display of the Gateway’s contents, and Adobe Photoshop is used for vector images. Adobe Acrobat is used for on-line display of the Gateway’s contents, and Adobe Photoshop is used for vector images.

contributors