

Not the Way It's Supposed to Be: Final Review

Epilogue and Ch. 2

1—The beginning of the end. As you think back on what we have read in this study, what about “sin” has stuck out to you? In other words, what has changed or developed in your understanding of sin?

-[corruption, perversion, parasite, pollution, disintegration, deception (masquerades as good), Folly, Addiction, attack of shalom, fleeing responsibility]

-How has this translated into your daily experience? How has this book changed how you process the temptation to sin?

2—As our understanding of the problem of sin becomes more nuanced and developed so should our understanding of its remedy. How has your understanding of Jesus developed alongside your understand of sin?

-Particularly, your understanding of justification and sanctification...

Before moving on... [Read Psalm 1]

3—Given Psalm 1 and the discussion of Spiritual Hygiene in Chapter 2, let's see if we can put together a vision of what a well lived life looks like.

-Considering the complexity of sin, how does Jesus fit into this vision?
