

Diana Stephens

She moved to California from Wisconsin in 1972, and to Orinda with her husband Allan in 1987. She has a BA and Single Subject Credential in both English and History, and a Masters in History.

She has been an educator in classrooms at Miramonte HS, Glenbrook MS, Oak Grove MS, and San Leandro HS.

As a community activist, Diana spearheaded the successful effort to repave Crestview Dr., has been on the steering committee for FAIR for two years, and hopes to help Orinda's leaders develop plans to address the community's infrastructure and emergency services needs.

Diana and Allan have three children, two in college and one in the Orinda Unified School District.
