

National Advocacy Organizations Working To End Sexual Exploitation and Human Trafficking

ALABAMA

Freedom to Thrive

Birmingham, AL

Mission: Freedom to Thrive was created as a response to the growing recognition of the prevalence of human trafficking in the southeast. The coalition was formed in an effort to raise awareness for the purpose of victim identification as well as to advocate for needed policies and resources. Freedom to Thrive is a part of the Reaching Out program of Youth & Family Services Network (YFSN). (Source: YFSN)

Website: http://www.senetwork.org/index.php?option=com_content&view=article&id=88

Phone: 205-276-8978

Make Way Partners

Birmingham, AL

Mission: Make Way Partners' primary focus is the prevention of trafficking in humans from the countries of origin and educating and mobilizing Christianity in the countries of destination and transit.

Website: <http://www.makewaypartners.org/>

Phone: 205-240-8597

ARIZONA

Arizona League to end Regional Trafficking (ALERT)

Phoenix, AZ

Mission: ALERT is a coalition representing partnerships with law enforcement, faith-based communities, non-profit organizations, social service agencies, attorneys and concerned citizens. ALERT helps victims of trafficking directly as well as works to end the suffering and dehumanization of victims of human trafficking through education, outreach and a variety of programs and services. ALERT seeks to educate the public about human trafficking and train various communities in victim identification and works to establish a regional network throughout Arizona and expand the anti-trafficking initiative. (Source: ALERT)

Website: <http://traffickingaz.org/>

Phone: 602-433-2441

Vision Abolition

Phoenix, AZ

Mission: A non-profit faith-based organization, Vision Abolition is dedicated to the prevention of sexual exploitation of human beings as well as the rescue and restoration of victims of sex trafficking and sexual exploitation worldwide. (Source: Vision Abolition)

Website: <http://www.visionabolition.org/>

Phone: 480-444-0223

CALIFORNIA

The A21 Campaign

Costa Mesa, CA

Mission: The A21 Campaign is comprised of individuals, organizations, government officials, and people who are committed to abolishing injustice in the 21st century. Their goal is to raise awareness, take legal action where appropriate, and offer rehabilitation services to rescued victims of human trafficking in order to fight this injustice from a comprehensive approach. Additionally, they strive to branch out to address this issue from a preventative standpoint, aiming to cripple the human trafficking trade so there are fewer victims that need to be rescued. (Source: The A21 Campaign)

Website: <http://www.thea21campaign.org>

Phone: 949-202-4681

The Alliance to Stop Slavery and End Trafficking (ASSET)

State-wide, CA

Mission: ASSET is an advocacy NGO dedicated to the eradication of slavery through amplifying the victim's voice and supporting systemic solutions. (Source: ASSET)

Website: <http://www.assetcampaign.org/>

Anti-Pornography.org

Los Angeles, CA

Mission: AntiPornography.org is a nonprofit organization working to prevent and combat the devastating harms of pornography, prostitution and sex trafficking, as well as all other forms of sexual exploitation, through public education and advocacy. In order to do this effectively they provide many videos, documentaries, articles, and other resources to educate the public. They also provide many different ways for the public to share their voice in order to help with the cause. (Source: Anti-Pornography.org)

Website: <http://www.antipornography.org/>

The Association of Filipinas, Feminists Fighting Imperialism, Re-feudalization, and Marginalization (AF3IRM)

San Diego, CA

Mission: AF3IRM is a national organization of women engaged in transnational feminist, anti-imperialist activism. AF3IRM is committed to militant movement-building in the United States and effects change through grassroots organizing, trans-ethnic alliance building, education, advocacy and direct action. (Source: AF3IRM)

Website: <http://af3irm.org/>

Phone: 323-356-4748

Bilateral Safety Corridor Coalition (BSCC)

San Diego, CA

Mission: BSCC is an alliance of over 60 government and nonprofit agencies in the United States and Latin America that is convened along the U.S.-Mexico Border Region to combat slavery and human trafficking. Their mission is to preserve the dignity and well being of commercially and sexually exploited men, women, and children through prevention, intervention, and education. BSCC is committed to bilaterally preventing and intervening in the commercial and sexual exploitation of women and children while advocating for all exploited persons. (Source: BSCC)

Website: <http://bsccoalition.org/>

Phone: 619-336-0770

Business Travellers Against Human Trafficking

Pasadena, CA

Mission: The Business Travellers website was created by the organization Stop the Traffik to inform businessmen and women of the plight of trafficked persons. Each year, thousands of women, children and men are trafficked into modern day slavery. It may be that, as people travel on business, they see signs of people being forced to sell sex, or work in forced labor. Now they can report these abuses in a simple way by sending a message through this website. (Source: Business Travellers)

Website: <http://businesstravellers-org.web26.winsvr.net/Home/tabid/36/language/en-US/Default.aspx>

Phone: 626-447-0400

California Against Slavery (CAS)

Fremont, CA

Mission: CAS is a non-profit, non-partisan human rights organization. They want to make human trafficking the riskiest criminal business in California. Their mission is to strengthen California state laws to better reflect the personal and societal impact of human trafficking. CAS works toward the goal of putting an initiative on the 2012 California ballot to strengthen current human trafficking laws and increase victims' rights. (Source: CAS)

Website: <http://californiaagainstsavery.org/>

Phone: 510-473-7283

Call and Response

Emeryville, CA

Mission: Call and Response is a documentary film that goes undercover to reveal where slavery is thriving from the child brothels of Cambodia to the slave brick kilns of rural India. They believe the end of modern day slavery will come from individuals who gather together to put pressure on businesses, media, and governments to support their existing values for human rights. They provide audiences and activists with low-shelf, hands-on opportunities to act and engage in fighting slavery through mobile phones and online platforms. (Source: Call and Response)

Website: <http://www.callandresponse.com>

Phone: 510-465-2290

Captive Daughters

Los Angeles, CA

Mission: Captive Daughters is the first anti-trafficking group established in California. They focus solely on ending the sexual bondage of women and children. Their goal is to bring public attention to and call for the elimination of the forced prostitution of women and girl children. They seek to encourage national and international attention to sex trafficking by informing the general public about the scope and severity of the problem. To accomplish this, they share information via their website, participate in national and international forums and media outreach, collaborate with sister organizations, and encourage the television, film, publishing and artistic communities to focus on sex trafficking in their work. (Source: Captive Daughters)

Website: <http://captive Daughters.org/>

Chab Dai Coalition

Folsom, CA

Mission: The vision behind Chab Dai (literally “joining hands” in Khmer) was founded in Cambodia in 2005. Chab Dai aims to bring an end to trafficking and sexual exploitation through coalition building, community prevention, advocacy and research. In addition to the office in Cambodia, the vision of Chab Dai has been expanded into the USA and Canada. (Source: Chab Dai Coalition)

Website: <http://www.chabdai.org/>

Phone: 866-305-9800

Coalition to Abolish Slavery and Trafficking (CAST)

Los Angeles, CA

Mission: CAST believes that policy, grassroots advocacy and outreach can only be as good as the direct client experiences in which they are based. For this reason, CAST begins all of its policy initiatives by engaging their main constituents – survivors themselves. Through broad community outreach on local, state and national and international levels – via advocacy, the media, public education, leadership development, and coalition building – CAST spotlights the issue of trafficking so that more victims will be free and empowered. By fully developing its advocacy arm, alongside the delivery of services, CAST is realizing the fullest expression of its mission by impacting the policies that directly affect those CAST serves and their ability to create self-sustaining lives. (Source: CAST)

Website: <http://www.castla.org/>

Phone: 213-365-1906

Demi & Ashton Foundation (DNA)

CA

Mission: DNA is a U.S.-based nonprofit organization. It was founded in order to raise awareness about child sex slavery, change the cultural stereotypes that facilitate this horrific problem, and rehabilitate innocent victims.

Website: <http://demiandashton.org/>

The I Stop Traffic Awareness Campaign

Los Angeles, CA

Mission: The I Stop Traffic Awareness Campaign is a project created by the non-profit organization, Artists United For Social Justice (A.U.S.J.) The mission of AUSJ is empower activists to create and distribute multimedia content that educates the public, particularly youth, about human rights violations and social injustices. (Source: I Stop Traffic)

Website: <http://istoptraffic.com/>

Kingdom Builders

San Diego, CA

Mission: Kingdom Builder's mission is to use the real estate and lending profession to raise funding for the rescue and recovery operations of innocent young children in third- world countries. They are a network dedicated to raising funds for the rescue and recovery of young innocent children being held in bondage in the vicious crime against humanity - the sex-slave trade. (Source: Kingdom Builders)

Website: <http://www.funding4them.com/>

Phone: 800-352-8048

Los Angeles Unity Coalition (LACUC)

Los Angeles, CA

Mission: LACUC is part of a regional three county human trafficking outreach campaign spearheaded by the Bilateral Safety Corridor Coalition (BSCC), based in San Diego County. Each coalition is comprised of 20-60 government agencies; nongovernmental organizations (NGOs); law enforcement; and individuals that work together to best address human trafficking in Southern California. Each coalition does trainings and community events focused on educating the public on human trafficking in the Southern California area. Additionally, the three groups are charged with distributing funds over the three county areas. (Source: LACUC)

Website: <http://lahumantrafficking.org/>

Phone: 323-658-5500

The Mariposa Center for Change

Los Angeles, CA

Mission: The Mariposa Center for Change is one of the few comprehensive resource centers for women and children of color in Southern California. Following a transnational feminist perspective and using a transformational empowerment model of practice, they provide not only direct services, but also opportunities to engage in social justice and advocacy work that create change in the local and global community. The Mariposa Center for Change is run by a group of like minded women, many volunteer based, that share a long standing history of expertise and experience of over twenty years of activism for women's rights and more specifically, for immigrant and transnational women's rights. (Source: Mariposa Center for Change)

Website: <http://www.mariposacenterforchange.org/>

Phone: 323-640-SAFE

Million Kids

Riverside, CA

Mission: Million Kids distributes designated funds to recognized agencies and activists working to prevent and eradicate human trafficking. Million Kids is a single-issue nonprofit committed to ending the human trafficking and sexual exploitation of children. (Source: Million Kids)

Website: <http://millionkids.org/>

Motivating, Inspiring, Supporting and Serving Sexually Exploited Youth (MISSEY)

Oakland, CA

Mission: MISSEY is a community-based organization in that provides comprehensive services in a safe environment to support and serve sexually exploited youth. They also work to provide information to the community and government about the commercial sexual exploitation of children. They provide training, technical information, and workshops for social agencies, law enforcement, and members of the community. (Source: MISSEY)

Website: <http://www.misseey.org/>

Phone: 510-267-8840

With More Than Purpose

San Diego, CA

Mission: With More Than Purpose is an abolitionist movement and non-profit creating awareness about human trafficking in the United States. (Source: With More Than Purpose)

Website: <http://www.morethanpurpose.org/>

The Nest Foundation

Los Angeles, CA

Mission: The Nest Foundation raises the public's awareness of the commercial sexual exploitation (CSE) of American children, through a feature-length documentary film, followed by other art driven media campaigns and an enhanced educational dvd for distribution in high schools throughout North America. (Source: The Nest Foundation)

Website: <http://www.playgroundproject.com/>

Phone: 323-461-3662

Not for Sale

Half Moon Bay, CA

Mission: The Not for Sale Campaign aims to recruit, educate, and mobilize an international grassroots social movement that effectively combats human trafficking and slavery through "Smart Activism". It deploys innovative solutions for every individual to re-abolish slavery- in their own backyards and across the globe. (Source: Not for Sale)

Website: <http://www.notforsalecampaign.org/>

Phone: 650-560-9990

Prostitution Research and Education (PRE)

San Francisco, CA

Mission: PRE is a nonprofit organization that conducts research on prostitution, pornography and trafficking, and offers education and consultation to researchers, survivors, the public and policymakers. Its goal is to abolish the institution of prostitution while at the same time advocating for alternatives to trafficking and prostitution - including emotional and physical healthcare for women in prostitution. (Source: PRE)

Website: <http://www.prostitutionresearch.com/>

The Sold Project

Pleasanton, CA

Mission: The Sold Project is made up of 1) Scholarships 2) Mentorship for every child that is sponsored 3) A resource center for the community and 4) Human trafficking awareness programs at the school starting in every 6-grade classroom to teach the children about the realities of human trafficking and prostitution. (Source: The Sold Project)

Website: <http://www.thesoldproject.org/>

Phone: 323-828-6450

The Standing Against Sexual Exploitation Project (Sage)

San Francisco, CA

Mission: The SAGE Project is a nonprofit organization with one primary aim: bringing an end to the commercial sexual exploitation of children and adults. SAGE contributes to that goal by raising awareness about CSE/CSEC issues, and by providing outreach and services to CSE/CSEC survivors. SAGE is a unique collaboration between law enforcement, public health, social services, and private agencies. Their approach is collaborative as well as prevention and solution oriented; it's about restorative justice that benefits individual communities and the whole of our society. (Source: SAGE)

Website: <http://www.sagesf.org/>

Phone: 415-905-5050

Students and Artists Fighting to End Human Slavery (SAFEHS)

CA

Mission: SAFEHS is a grassroots organization that believes that through art/education and community coalitions human trafficking can be abolished. They work to build a movement of artists, survivors, supporters, and activists creatively engaging with the anti-trafficking movement. The curriculum is multi-media; their goal is to inspire the community to explore various avenues in which they may artistically express themselves through a variety of lenses and to support artists whose mission is to end exploitation through the arts. Their objective is to empower students/survivors and the community and its artists to recognize their agency in promoting social change and abolishing human slavery through creative means. (Source: SAFEHS)

Website: <http://www.safehs.com/>

Survivors Connect

Fair Oaks, CA

Mission: Survivors Connect is a collaborative project to build global advocacy & support networks of survivors and activists working to end modern-day slavery and human trafficking. They work to develop a holistic understanding and response to human trafficking using innovative instruments such as social media, new technologies and other interactive media to empower and enhance protection, prosecution and prevention efforts. (Source: Survivors Connect)

Website: <http://www.survivorsconnect.org/>

Phone: 916-233-7198

Tiny Stars

Malibu, CA

Mission: Tiny Stars is a non-government agency dedicated to working with US Federal Law Enforcement to gather evidence of international extreme human rights abuses. (Source: Tiny Stars)

Website: <http://www.tinystars.org/>

Phone: 646-812-6925

With More Than Purpose

San Diego, CA

Mission: With More Than Purpose is a San Diego based non-profit creating awareness about human trafficking in the United States while encouraging the public to join their abolitionist movement to end modern day slavery. (Source: With More Than Purpose)

Website: <http://www.morethanpurpose.org/>

Phone: 619-243-9996

COLORADO

iEmpathize (iE)

Boulder, CO

Mission: iE is an arts and advocacy non-profit that creates opportunities for people to explore and engage in issues of injustice. iE is a pathway to the vulnerable and victimized that effectively connects people and resources to needs around the world. Their initial efforts are focused on what they believe to be one of the darkest human rights violations existing today- child sex slavery. (Source: iE)

Website: <http://iempathize.org/>

Phone: 303-625-4074

Laboratory to Combat Human Trafficking (LCHT)

Denver, CO

Mission: LCHT seeks to combat human trafficking at a local and global level through community-based research, training and education, leadership development, and international collaboration. Their vision is to develop sustainable efforts to end human trafficking by establishing community support mechanisms and serving as a catalyst for social change. (Source: LCHT)

Website: <http://www.combathumantrafficking.org/>

Phone: 303-295-0451

Prax(us)

Denver, CO

Mission: Prax(us) is dedicated to ending human trafficking. They address the root causes of exploitation by creating systemic change and providing direct services through a comprehensive street outreach program. Prax(us) uses a community engagement model intended to empower participants, advocate for equal rights, and address the root causes of human trafficking. (Source: Prax(us))

Website: <http://www.praxus.org/>

Phone: 720-251-3263

CONNECTICUT

The Barnaba Institute

Clinton, CT

Mission: The Barnaba Institute runs programs which include education, public awareness-raising, professional training seminars, and outreach to at-risk, sexually exploited and trafficked youth and young adults. (Source: Barnaba Institute)

Website: <http://www.barnabainstitute.org/>

Phone: 203-816-0749

Cents of Relief

New Haven, CT

Mission: Cents of Relief endeavors to allow vulnerable populations, particularly women in prostitution and their children, access to healthcare and prevention from human trafficking. Their projects are dedicated towards providing educational opportunities, improving healthcare, and stopping human trafficking in hopes of permitting these individuals to enjoy the basic necessities of life. (Source: Cents of Relief)

Website: <http://www.centsofrelief.org/>

Love 146

New Haven, CT

Mission: Love146 works to combat child sex slavery and exploitation and restore survivors with excellence. It takes a diversified approach in prevention by working across the globe to reduce the risk for children in high traffic areas, strengthening prevention networks, empowering youth, and empowering advocates. Love146 is working to increase a body of research where scientific knowledge in aftercare and prevention of child sex slavery and exploitation is generated by engaging in scientific studies and by equipping students with skills in research methodologies. Research findings are shared for the benefit of the victims worldwide through on-line publication. (Source: Love 146)

Website: <http://love146.org/>

Phone: 203-772-4420

Stop Online Exploitation

Centerbrook, CT

Mission: The Stop Online Exploitation Campaign is a growing coalition of human rights organizations - along with caring, private businesses and citizens - that want online access to human trafficking and prostitution to stop. They use technology that allows the public to easily send letters of concern directly to Craigslist, other operators of prostitution websites, U.S. Attorney General Eric H. Holder Jr., State's Attorney General, and Federal Representatives, demanding that they take appropriate action to protect more people from abuse and possible violence. (Source: Stop Online Exploitation)

Website: <http://www.stoponlineexploitation.org>

Phone: 860-581-5455

FLORIDA

Born 2 Fly International

Lake Mary, FL

Mission: The Born to Fly Project is a strategic 4-stage plan to educate kids, parents, and teachers about the dangers of child trafficking—with the ultimate goal of ending it. (Source: Born 2 Fly)

Website: <http://www.born2fly.org/>

Broward Human Trafficking Coalition (BHTC)

Fort Lauderdale, FL

Mission: The mission of the BHTC is to raise awareness about human trafficking. The Coalition serves as an information, education, and networking resource for organizations as well as the community.

Website: <http://bhctc.us/>

Phone: 954-594-3439

Clearwater/Tampa Bay Area Task Force on Human Trafficking (CATFHT)

Clearwater, FL

Mission: The mission of the task force is to identify and rescue victims, create a coordinated law enforcement system to investigate and prosecute these crimes, and to deliver social, legal and immigration services to human trafficking victims in the Clearwater and Tampa Bay area. The Task Force will serve as a mechanism for communication and strategic collaboration between law enforcement agencies and service providers; coordinate community resources; promote community awareness of human trafficking; and train intermediary communities on human trafficking indicators and responses. (Source: CATFHT)

Website: <http://www.catfht.org/>

Collier County Coalition Against Human Trafficking

Naples, FL

Mission: The mission of the Collier County Coalition Against Human Trafficking is to eliminate forced servitude in Southwest Florida. The Collier County Coalition Against Human Trafficking, an organization of law enforcement, social service providers, and non-governmental entities bound with community support, will combat forced sexual and labor servitude in Southwest Florida by raising community awareness and coordinating services to victims. (Source: Collier County Coalition)

Website: <http://www.cccaht.org/>

Hotline: 1-888-373-7888

Florida Coalition Against Human Trafficking (FCAHT)

Clearwater, FL

Mission: FCAHT works to Improve and provide outreach and services to victims of human trafficking while developing support programs, networking, coalition building, training, service delivery and referrals to victims in need. FCAHT provides training to law enforcement agencies, medical facilities, faith based, civil and community organizations to bring awareness and recognition to the signs and symptoms of human trafficking as well as providing advocacy for the victims. (Source: FCAHT)

Website: <http://www.stophumantrafficking.org/>
Phone: 727-442-3064

Human Trafficking Awareness Partnerships (HTAP)

Sanibel, FL

Mission: Because human trafficking is a hidden crime which can only be eradicated by an informed public supporting professional law enforcement and service providers, the mission of the Human Trafficking Awareness Partnerships is to bring the issue of human trafficking to the forefront of public awareness by empowering individual communities to take action through education, training, and the coordination of resources with the goal of creating partnerships of informed communities to share information, experiences and best practices in order to make the work of each partner more effective and to extend efforts beyond local jurisdictions. They also support primary research and disseminating information. (Source: HTAP)

Website: <http://www.humantraffickingawareness.com/>
Phone: 239-395-2635

International Association of Human Trafficking Investigators (IAHTI)

Oldsmar, FL

Mission: IAHTI is a not-for profit, association that was founded in 2009. The founders of the association realized in their own investigations that there was no centralized database containing non-governmental organization (NGO) contacts, task force investigator contact information and task force locations throughout the world. Therefore, IAHTI was founded to provide a secure centralized database that human trafficking investigators could utilize to share case information in addition to obtaining contact information of investigators and NGO's worldwide. (Source: IAHTI)

Website: <http://iahti.org/>
Phone: 727-504-7203

GEORGIA

A Future. Not a Past.

Atlanta, GA

Mission: The Juvenile Justice Fund partnered with the Atlanta Women's Foundation to bring to the community an important public awareness campaign to stop the commercial sexual exploitation of children. This campaign works to end the commercial sexual exploitation of children in every community. It works through a four-tiered strategy of research, prevention, intervention and education, and the partnering with national policy makers and direct service providers to create a national zero-tolerance zone for the commercial sexual exploitation of our nation's children. (Source: A Future. Not a Past.)

Website: <http://afnap.org/>

Wellspring Living

Atlanta, GA

Mission: Wellspring Living's mission is to confront the issue of childhood sexual abuse and exploitation through advocacy, education and treatment programs for girls and women. Their programs are a refuge for women and girls who need a chance to start over. Through therapy, education, life skills and spiritual renewal, the Wellspring programs give participants recovery tools for the body, soul and spirit. (Source: Wellspring Living)

Website: <http://www.wellspringliving.org/>

Phone: 770-631-8888

HAWAII

The Pacific Alliance to Stop Slavery (PASS)

Honolulu, HI

Mission: PASS is a not-for-profit whose mission is to stop human trafficking in Hawaii and the Pacific. PASS provides services and advocacy for survivors of human trafficking, education and training on the identification of victims of human trafficking, and public awareness and prevention education for the greater community. (Source: PASS)

Website: <http://www.traffickjamming.org/>

Phone: 808-343-5056

Pacific Survivor Center (PSC)

Honolulu, HI

Mission: PSC is dedicated to efforts to change policy and practice at the local, national, and international levels to facilitate the healing of survivors of human trafficking and torture. PSC promotes and facilitates dialogue between policy makers and non-government organizations to create a robust anti-trafficking and torture public policy ensuring the protection of survivors' fundamental human rights. (Source: PSC)

Website: <http://www.pschawaii.org/>

ILLINOIS

Chicago Alliance Against Sexual Exploitation (CAASE)

Chicago, IL

Mission: CAASE believes it is possible to stop sexual exploitation by directly addressing the culture, institutions, and individuals that perpetrate, profit from, or tacitly support sexually exploitive acts against people. To accomplish this mission, CAASE: seeks legal repercussions on behalf of survivors against perpetrators of sexual harm; advocates for policies and legislation that hold sexual exploiters accountable; creates and implements prevention initiatives, including the provision of safe spaces for survivors to give testimony about their experiences; and develops resources that empower individuals and communities to stand with victims of sexual harm and take powerful actions against sexual exploiters. (Source: CAASE)

Website: <http://caase.org/>

Phone: 773-244-2230

Chicago Coalition for the Homeless: Prostitution Alternatives Round Table (PART)

Chicago, IL

Mission: CCH started the Prostitution Alternatives Round Table (PART) in order to address the link between prostitution and homelessness. PART is a network of governmental and private nonprofit organizations and survivors of prostitution. CCH advocacy is effective because it is partnered with authentic community organizing- prostitution survivors, in partnership with a policy specialist, assist in advocacy work. Their advocacy work includes overseeing efforts to adopt public policies and fund alternative programs that would help women rehabilitate their lives. (Source: CCH)

Website: <http://chicagohomeless.org/what/prostitution>

Phone: 312-435-4548

Heartland Alliance National Immigrant Justice Center (NIJC)

Chicago, IL

Mission: Heartland Alliance's National Immigrant Justice Center provides immigration legal services to low-income immigrants, refugees, and asylum seekers. They provide immigration legal services to foreign-born trafficking victims. NIJC provides direct legal services to and advocates for these populations through policy reform, impact litigation, and public education. (Source: Heartland Alliance)

Website: www.immigrantjustice.org

Phone: 312-660-1370

Illinois Rescue and Restore Coalition

Chicago, IL

Mission: Illinois Rescue and Restore is a coalition between the Illinois Department of Human Services (DHS) and the federal government to combat labor and sex trafficking in Illinois. In partnership with law enforcement, social service organizations, healthcare, and advocacy groups across the state, Rescue and Restore seeks to fight what has been dubbed a modern day form of slavery. Their mission is to raise awareness on the issue of human trafficking and to identify and serve victims of human trafficking in Illinois. (Source: Illinois Rescue and Restore)

Website: www.dhs.state.il.us/rescueandrestore

Hotline: 1-888-3737-888

The International Organization for Adolescents (IOFA)

Chicago, IL

Mission: IOFA is dedicated to improving the lives of young people by addressing critical and emerging issues affecting vulnerable adolescents around the world. Currently, IOFA is focused on empowering orphan youth and preventing child trafficking. IOFA carries out its mission by identifying critical and emerging issues, conducting original, peer-led research, developing youth-participatory rights based solutions, and establishing collaborative partnerships. (Source: IOFA)

Website: <http://www.iofa.org/>

Phone: 773-404-8831

Loyola's Center for the Human Rights of Children

Chicago, IL

Mission: Recognizing that children require special protections, the Center for the Human Rights of Children pursues an agenda of interdisciplinary research, education, and service to address critical and complex issues (such as trafficking and sexual exploitation) affecting children and youth, both locally and globally. The Center applies a human-rights approach to the problems affecting children, reaffirming the principle of the indivisibility of human rights and the importance of promoting economic, social, cultural, civil, and political rights of children. Moreover, it does so with respect for the rights and responsibilities of parents, teachers, and other caregivers entrusted with raising children.

Website: <http://www.luc.edu/chrc/index.shtml>

Phone: 312-915-6350

Salvation Army Promise

Chicago, IL

Mission: The Salvation Army PROMISE initiative (Partnership to Rescue our Minors from Sexual Exploitation) is a task force which engages in initiatives that address the PROMISE provisions of awareness, prevention, intervention, and service delivery. Strategies to implementing these provisions are developed by members who represent the social service, education, legal, judicial, healthcare, and law enforcement and other government sectors thus ensuring a comprehensive and holistic approach to fighting human trafficking. (Source: PROMISE)

Website: <http://www.sapromise.org/>

Phone: 312-291-7916

Traffick Free

Chicago, IL

Mission: Traffick Free is a group of simply ordinary people volunteering their talents and time to end to human trafficking - first in Chicago, and eventually throughout the world. It is Traffick Free's purpose to first create awareness of human trafficking, and then to take tangible and active steps on all levels to see to its end. Traffick Free seeks to act as a catalyst- igniting a synergistic movement by combining resources, skills and expertise to end the demand for trafficking and free those enslaved. (Source: Traffick Free)

Website: <http://www.traffickfree.org/>

The Voices and Faces Project

Chicago, IL

Mission: The Voices and Faces Project gives voice and face to rape and trafficking survivors, offering a sense of solidarity and possibility to those who have lived through abuse, while raising awareness of how this human rights and public health issue impacts victims, families and communities. They have created a national network of sexual assault and trafficking survivors willing to stand up and speak out about the rape and abuse they have endured. Civic and political engagement is a critical component of The Voices and Faces Project. Their Speakers Bureau and Community Outreach Program make their survivor and advocate participants available to community groups, legislators, policymakers and the media, with the end goal of providing both a personal and political perspective on sexual assault and exploitation. (Source: Voices and Faces Project)

Website: <http://voicesandfaces.org/>
Phone: 1-800-656-HOPE

IOWA

Center to Restore Trafficked and Exploited Children (CRTEC)

Hiawatha, IA

Mission: CRTEC is a national anti-trafficking movement with the mission to protect the lives and the futures of American Children by leading, equipping, and mobilizing abolitionist individuals and organizations through an in depth-advocacy and nationwide trafficking in persons identification program. (Source: CRTEC)

Website: <http://crtec.org/>
Phone: 319-892-0230

Network Against Human Trafficking (NAHT)

Des Moines, IA

Mission: The Mission of the NAHT is to end human trafficking in all of its forms through the use of collaborative strategies, partnerships and services.

Website: <http://www.iowanaht.org/>

KENTUCKY

Capacity Inc.

KY

Mission: Capacity Inc. aims to create a deep cultural change necessary for solving the obstacles that keep women, girls, and children worldwide from obtaining the highest quality of life. In order to accomplish this mission, Capacity Inc. collects gender specific data that identifies a wide range of needs, unites women leaders and women faced by challenges internationally, advocates for policy changes, provides social franchising, and designs programs and processes. (Source: Capacity, Inc.)

Website: <http://www.capacityinc.org/>

MensWork

Louisville, KY

Mission: MensWork is a collective of men working to educate, mobilize and organize men to prevent all forms of sexual and domestic violence. They work proactively to engage men as allies who can work alongside women to eliminate domestic and sexual violence from communities. They provide a range of educational programs and work with existing groups of men to explore ways that they can respond to, address or work to prevent sexual and domestic violence. They also initiate organizing efforts that are designed specifically to speak to men, or speak on behalf of men to end sexual and domestic violence. (Source: MensWork)

Website: <http://www.mensworkinc.com/>

Phone: 502-494-9044

LOUISIANA

Tigers Against Trafficking

Baton Rouge, LA

Mission: Tigers Against Trafficking is a group of LSU students firmly committed to playing their part in the abolition of modern day slavery. Their heart is to mobilize both the student body and local community to actively address this injustice on a global scale. They have three main objectives: awareness, activation, and fundraising. (Source: Tigers Against Trafficking)

Website: <http://www.tigersagainsttrafficking.com/>

Trafficking Hope

Baton Rouge, LA

Mission: Trafficking Hope is an outreach and awareness campaign of the Rescue and Restore Human Trafficking Coalition of Southeast Louisiana and Cyrus International. The campaign is designed to bring hope to victims of human trafficking by: identifying, rescuing, and restoring victims of sex and labor trafficking from cities along the I-10 corridor from Baton Rouge to New Orleans, LA, and educating the public and providing awareness on the issue of human trafficking in America regarding both American and international victims. (Source: Trafficking Hope)

Website: <http://www.traffickinghope.org/>

Phone: 225-819-0000

MARYLAND

Faith Alliance Against Slavery and Trafficking (FAAST)

Baltimore, MD

Mission: FAAST is a Christian-based, community-oriented non-profit alliance committed to principles that value the physical, emotional, and spiritual dignity of the whole person. FAAST mobilizes communities to generate a united and active response to the injustices of slavery and human trafficking. Each partner organization's impact is expanded as their resources and efforts are combined to form large-scale anti-trafficking projects. (Source: FAAST)

Website: <http://www.faastinternational.org/>

Phone: 855-33-FAAST

MASSACHUSETTS

I Abolish: An American Anti-Slavery Group (AASG)

Boston, MA

Mission: The American Anti-Slavery Group is a small set of abolitionists who broke the stunning story that modern day human bondage thrives around the globe. They helped former slaves educate tens of thousands about slavery and they successfully helped press the US government to stop the genocide and slave raids in South Sudan. They work to update their members and the public on the general plight of slaves around the world. (Source: AASG)

Website: <http://www.iabolish.org/>

The Boston Initiative to Advance Human Rights (BITAHR)

Boston, MA

Mission: BITAHR is dedicated to programs that focus on helping women and children attain protection and fulfillment of their human rights. BITAHR has a particular interest in the right of women and children to be free from forced prostitution and commercial sexual exploitation (CSE). BITAHR engages in research and provides outreach and education targeted at eliminating CSE through the empowerment of children and young women. (Source: BITAHR)

Website: <http://www.bitahr.org/>

The Emancipation Network (TEN)

Sagamore, MA

Mission: TEN fights human trafficking and slavery through economic empowerment and education. Their mission is: to assist rescue shelters by offering job programs and funding; to improve rehabilitation and reintegration- giving survivors the tools to rebuild their own safe and slavery-free lives; to raise awareness about slavery and engage people to action; and to prevent trafficking among high-risk communities such as red light districts and refugee camps. (Source: TEN)

Website: <http://www.madebysurvivors.com/>

Phone: 800-831-6089

Harvard Kennedy School, Carr Center for Human Rights Policy Initiative to Stop Human Trafficking

Cambridge, MA

Mission: The Program on Human Trafficking and Modern-Day Slavery conducts research on the underlying causes and conditions that permit human trafficking to flourish and develops data-driven public policy strategies to address this global human rights crisis. (Source: Harvard Kennedy School)

Website: <http://www.hks.harvard.edu/cchrp/isht/index.php>

Phone: 617-495-5819

My Life My Choice Project (MLMC)

Boston, MA

Mission: The My Life My Choice Project is a nationally recognized, groundbreaking initiative designed to reach adolescent girls most vulnerable to commercial sexual exploitation. MLMC provides a unique continuum of prevention, victim identification, and intervention services. MLMC offers provider training, prevention groups, case coordination, and survivor mentoring to victims of exploitation. (Source: MLMC)

Website: <http://www.jri.org/mylife/>

Phone: 617-699-4998

Hunt Alternatives Fund's "Demand Abolition" Initiative

Cambridge, MA

Mission: Demand Abolition supports the movement to end modern-day slavery by combating the demand for illegal commercial sex in the US. By convening key stakeholders, conducting and disseminating research, raising public awareness, and educating policymakers and law enforcement officials, Demand Abolition is catalyzing systemic social change that reflects the dignity of all people. (Source: Hunt Alternatives Fund)

Website: http://www.huntalternatives.org/pages/7902_demand_abolition.cfm

Phone: 617-995-1900

Nivasa Foundation

Merrimac, MA

Mission: Nivasa Foundation seeks to break the cycle of modern day slavery for women and their children in Sri Lanka. The Nivasa Sponsor a Child program provides financial support for victims of human trafficking to help them raise and educate their children in Sri Lanka. By working in conjunction with local organizations which assist with the rehabilitation of victimized women and their families, the Nivasa Foundation provides hope and help to those who need it most. Their mission is to educate people at home and abroad about the dangers of human trafficking and modern-day slavery and help victims live in dignity and freedom with the ability to provide for their children and their future. (Source: Nivasa Foundation)

Website: <http://nivasafoundation.org/>

Phone: 617-996-9050

MICHIGAN

The Hope Project

Muskegon, MI

Mission: The Hope Project began in 2005 as an outreach program to educate and inform the community about the issue of human trafficking. To end human trafficking, people must first be aware that it exists and is a problem. The Hope Project is committed to speaking out against the evils of human trafficking. (Source: The Hope Project)

Website: <http://www.hopeprojectusa.org/>

Phone: 231-747-8555

MINNESOTA

Adults Saving Kids

Minneapolis, MN

Mission: Adults Saving Kids is a non-profit, faith-based organization founded by Rev. Al Erickson. Since 1990, Adults Saving Kids has been educating congregations and communities about the sexual exploitation of young people in The United States. (Source: Adults Saving Kids)

Website: <http://www.adultssavingkids.org/>

Phone: 612-872-0684

The Advocates for Human Rights

Minneapolis, MN

Mission: The Advocates for Human Rights is a non-profit organization dedicated to promoting and protecting human rights. Through cutting-edge research, education, and advocacy, The Advocates saves lives, fights injustice, restores peace, and builds the human rights movement in the United States and around the world. (Source: The Advocates for Human Rights)

Website:

http://www.theadvocatesforhumanrights.org/Human_Sex_Trafficking_in_Minnesota2.html

Phone: 612-341-3302

Civil Society

St. Paul, MN

Mission: Civil Society works to provide legal, educational and advocacy services for international victims of trafficking. (Source: Civil Society)

Website: <http://civilsocietyhelps.org/>

Phone: 651-291-0713

Minnesota Coalition Against Sexual Assault (MNCASA)

St. Paul, MN

Mission: MNCASA works through The Action Network to End Sexual Exploitation in Minnesota (ANESEM). ANESEM is a grassroots collaboration of state government, non-profit agencies, community activists and survivors committed to ending sexual exploitation in Minnesota. The Action Network combines the power of multi-disciplinary collaboration with grassroots organizing and a prevention centered approach to focus its work on responding to the increased sexual exploitation that often surrounds major conventions, conferences, expositions and specialty shows. (Source: MNCASA)

Website: http://www.mncasa.org/services_anezem.html

Phone: 651-209-9993

Minnesota Human Trafficking Watch

St. Paul, MN

Mission: The Minnesota Human Trafficking Watch is a group of people and agencies who are concerned about the horrific sex and labor trafficking going on in the State of Minnesota. The Watch coordinate trainings, conducts public education and outreach, and provides comprehensive services to victims of trafficking in the State of Minnesota. The Watch collaborates with law enforcement to make sure that trafficking victims receive the resources they need to be safe. (Source: Minnesota Human Trafficking Watch)

Website: <http://civilsocietyhelps.org/test/html/modules.php?name=Content&pa=showpage&pid=8>

Phone: 651-291-8810

MISSISSIPPI

Advocates for Freedom (AFF)

Biloxi, MS

Mission: AFF is a faith-based organization dedicated to ending the exploitation, sale and enslavement of men, women and children. They provide resources, education and training to bring awareness about human trafficking. (Source: AFF)

Website: <http://www.advocatesforfreedom.com/>

Phone: 228-806-3492

MISSOURI

Exodus Cry

Grandview, MO

Mission: Exodus Cry is an international anti-trafficking organization committed to abolishing modern day slavery through prayer and awareness, and assisting the victims of human trafficking and slavery. They aim to raise awareness through Exodus Cry Abolition Conferences, Documentaries, and the Exodus Cry Human Trafficking Awareness Center which was made to introduce people to the many realities of modern-day slavery. (Source: Exodus Cry)

Website: <http://exoduscry.com>

Phone: 816-398-7490

NEVADA

Nevada Coalition Against Sex Trafficking (NCAST)

NV

Mission: NCAST is a non-governmental, nonprofit organization. NCAST's mission includes educating Nevadans and other concerned citizens about the harms of prostitution, including the underlying and fundamental human rights violations of prostitution, the link between prostitution (both legal and illegal) and human trafficking, and developing and promoting policy and functional alternatives to current laws and practices within the State of Nevada. (Source: NCAST)

Website: http://www.nevadacoalition.org/component/option,com_frontpage/Itemid,1/

NEW MEXICO

New Mexico Organized Against Trafficking Humans (NM-OATH)

Ruidoso, NM

Mission: NM-OATH pursues the following mission: to educate communities about human trafficking, to increase public awareness and identification of local cases, to provide empowerment tools aimed at preventing victimization, to promote effective rights-based responses to instances of modern slavery, and to foster both non-governmental and governmental partnerships in joint action against human trafficking. (Source: NM-OATH)

Website: <http://www.nm-oath.org/>

Phone: 575-630-0015

NEW YORK

Asian American Legal Defense and Education Fund (AALDEF)

New York, NY

Mission: AALDEF is a national organization that protects and promotes the civil rights of Asian Americans. By combining litigation, advocacy, education, and organizing, AALDEF works with Asian American communities across the country to secure human rights for all. AALDEF focuses on critical issues affecting Asian Americans, including immigrant rights, economic justice for workers, youth rights and educational equity, housing and environmental justice, and the elimination of anti-Asian violence, police misconduct, and human trafficking. (Source: AALDEF)

Website: <http://aaldef.org/>
Phone: 212-966-5932 x235

Coalition Against Trafficking in Women (CATW)

New York, NY

Mission: CATW is a non-governmental organization that promotes women's human rights. It works internationally to combat sexual exploitation in all its forms, especially prostitution and trafficking in women and children, in particular girls. CATW researches and documents the situation of women who have been trafficked and are in prostitution; educates the public about the extent of harm sustained by women and girls in prostitution; and galvanizes change through legislation and working with governments and international agencies to create/change/amend policy and legislation that support the right of every woman and girls to be free of sexual exploitation; and helps create and support alternatives for women and girls who have been sexually exploited. CATW launches and supports anti-trafficking projects in areas that few programs address: the links between prostitution and trafficking; challenging the demand for prostitution that promotes sex trafficking; and protecting the women and children who are its victims by working to curb legal acceptance and tolerance of the sex industry. (Source: CATW)

Website: <http://www.catwinternational.org/>

End Child Prostitution, Child Pornography and Trafficking of Children for Sexual Purposes – USA (ECPAT-US)

Brooklyn, NY

Mission: ECPAT-USA is part of the ECPAT global network of organizations and individuals working together for the elimination of child prostitution, child pornography and the trafficking of children for sexual purposes. They seek to end the sexual exploitation of children trafficking to the USA, American children trafficked within the USA, and children exploited by Americans abroad. (Source: ECPAT-US)

Website: <http://ecpatusa.org/>
Phone: 718-935-9192

Equality Now

New York, NY

Mission: Equality Now works for the protection and promotion of the human rights of women around the world. Working with national human rights organizations and individual activists, Equality Now documents violence and discrimination against women and mobilizes international action to support their efforts to stop these human rights abuses. Through its Women's Action Network of concerned groups and individuals around the world, Equality Now distributes information about human rights violations, takes action to protest violations, and brings public attention to human rights violations against women. (Source: Equality Now)

Website: <http://equalitynow.org/>

Human Rights Watch

New York, NY

Mission: Human Rights Watch is one of the world's leading independent organizations dedicated to defending and protecting human rights. By focusing international attention where human rights are violated, they give voice to the oppressed and hold oppressors accountable for their crimes. Their rigorous, objective investigations and strategic, targeted advocacy build intense pressure for action and raise the cost of human rights abuse. For 30 years, Human Rights Watch has worked tenaciously to lay the legal and moral groundwork for deep-rooted change and has fought to bring greater justice and security to people around the world. (Source: Human Rights Watch)

Website: <http://www.hrw.org/>

Phone: 212-290-4700

New York Anti-Trafficking Coalition

New York, NY

Mission: The New York State Anti-Trafficking Coalition is a group of organizations that have joined forces to increase public awareness of human trafficking in their communities, enact anti-trafficking laws, improve law enforcement response and increase social services to help women and girls escape trafficking. The New York Anti-Trafficking Coalition helped drive the passage of two momentous laws in New York State: The New York Anti-Trafficking Law and the Safe Harbor for Exploited Youth Act. (Source: New York Anti-Trafficking Coalition)

Website: <http://www.stophumantraffickingny.org/>

Phone: 212-627-9895

New York Asian Women's Center (NYAWC)

New York, NY

Mission: NYAWC's Project Free: Ending Modern-day Slavery, helps survivors of human trafficking regain their freedom and recover from trauma through services including counseling, emergency shelter, case management and advocacy, and coordination with law enforcement and legal services. Project Free also conducts outreach to Asian American communities, law enforcement, and other service providers to heighten awareness about trafficking. (Source: NYAWC)

Website: <http://www.nyawc.org/>

Phone: 212-732-0054

Redlight Children (RLC)

New York, NY

Mission: RLC was founded as a campaign to raise public awareness about child sexual slavery and exploitation, and to collaborate with other nonprofit organizations, public officials, faith-based organizations, law enforcement, individuals, Universities and corporations in order to create a joint effort to fight against the issue. Today, with increasing support, RLC has been able to successfully mobilize the power of mass media to gain the resources and strategic partnerships needed to create a multi-stakeholder action plan aiming to decrease the demand of child sexual exploitation worldwide. (Source: Redlight Children)

Website: <http://www.redlightchildren.org/>

Restore

New York, NY

Mission: Restore implements a comprehensive model of service delivery for our clients as a way to fight the epidemic of modern-day slavery in NYC. Restore engages in medical advocacy and court advocacy. In addition to providing these direct services, Restore also offers community outreach and education to raise awareness and understanding of modern-day slavery. (Source: Restore)

Website: <http://restorenyc.org/>

Safe Horizon

New York, NY

Mission: Safe Horizon has provided victims of domestic violence, child abuse, human trafficking, rape and sexual assault, as well as homeless youth and families of homicide victims, with a wide range of comprehensive support. In addition to our direct services, Safe Horizon also advocates for policies on a local, state, and national level on behalf of those affected by violence and abuse. (Source: Safe Horizon)

Website: <http://www.safehorizon.org/>

Phone: 718-943-8631

Sanctuary for Families

New York, NY

Mission: Sanctuary for Families provides domestic violence victims, sex trafficking victims, and their children with a range of comprehensive services. Sanctuary also works to end domestic violence and its far-reaching impact through outreach, education, and advocacy. Their education and awareness-building initiatives connect with over 20,000 additional concerned community members each year, including local leaders, social service and legal professionals, law enforcement officials, potential victims, and many others. (Source: Sanctuary for Families)

Website: <http://www.sanctuaryforfamilies.org/>

Phone: 212-349-6009

Sex Workers Project (SWP)

New York, NY

Mission: SWP provides legal services and legal training, and engages in documentation and policy advocacy, for sex workers. Using a harm reduction and human rights model, they protect the rights and safety of sex workers who by choice, circumstance or coercion remain in the industry. (Source: SWP)

Website: <http://sexworkersproject.org/>

Phone: 646-602-5617

Somaly Mam Foundation (SMF)

New York, NY

Mission: The Somaly Mam Foundation is a nonprofit charity committed to ending modern day slavery in North America and around the world. The foundation works to eradicate human trafficking, liberate its victims, and empower survivors so they can create and sustain lives of dignity. It also runs awareness and advocacy campaigns in North America and around the world that shed light on the crime of human trafficking and focus on getting the public and governments involved in the fight to abolish modern day slavery. (Source: SMF)

Website: <http://www.somaly.org/>
Phone: 646-746-6574

Stop Child Trafficking Now (SCTNow)

New York, NY

Mission: SCTNow has chosen to fund a bold, new approach, one that addresses the demand side of child sex trafficking by targeting buyers/predators for prosecution and conviction. SCTNow exists to stop child trafficking by targeting the source of child trafficking: predators who drive the sex industry everywhere in the world, including in your local community. SCTNow has partnered with specially trained elite operatives familiar with what it takes to infiltrate, investigate and bring to justice the predators victimizing children worldwide. (Source: SCTNow)

Website: <http://www.sctnow.org/>
Phone: 212-333-SCTN

WITNESS

Brooklyn, NY

Mission: WITNESS uses video to open the eyes of the world to human rights violations. WITNESS empowers people to transform personal stories of abuse into powerful tools for justice, promoting public engagement and policy change. (Source: WITNESS)

Website: <http://www.witness.org/>

NORTH CAROLINA

The Carolina Women's Center

Chapel Hill, NC

Mission: The Carolina Women's Center works toward eradicating sex trafficking in the state and worldwide through policy and advocacy efforts. The Center helps to generate research and knowledge about trafficking practices. They raise awareness, both on campus and in the community, about the human rights violations trafficking causes, including the mental and physical effects on its victims and the impact on communities. The Center is a member of two state-wide anti-trafficking coalitions: the North Carolina Coalition Against Human Trafficking and NC Stop Human Trafficking. (Source: Human Trafficking, North Carolina)

Website: <http://humantrafficking.unc.edu/>

North Carolina Coalition Against Human Trafficking (NCCAHT)

State-wide, NC

Mission: NCCAHT is a group of professionals from multiple fields that work to raise awareness about human trafficking across North Carolina, to support efforts to prosecute traffickers, and to identify and assist victims. In 2007, the North Carolina Coalition Against Human Trafficking published a manual with more information about the taskforce and trafficking in general. (Source: NCCAHT)

Website: <http://humantrafficking.unc.edu/nccaht.html>

North Carolina Stop Human Trafficking

Raleigh, NC

Mission: NC Stop Human Trafficking is a statewide organization whose mission is to eradicate modern day slavery in all its forms; they work to connect individuals, community groups, and faith-based organizations in North Carolina who fight against human trafficking to collaborate, communicate, educate and advocate. They focus on the underlying, root causes of the problem to avoid putting a band-aid on the symptoms. (Source: NC Stop Human Trafficking)

Website: <http://ncstophumantrafficking.wordpress.com/>

OHIO

The Collaborative Initiative to End Human Trafficking

Cleveland, OH

Mission: The Collaborative Initiative began in 2007 in Cleveland Ohio in response to a need for information and action in northeast Ohio regarding the growing problem of human trafficking in the world, in the United States, and in Ohio. They work to raise awareness of human trafficking and participate in advocacy work. (Source: Collaborative Initiative)

Website: <http://www.collaborativeinitiative.org/>

Phone: 440-356-2254

National Underground Railroad Freedom Center (NURFC)

Cincinnati, OH

Mission: The National Underground Railroad Freedom Center is an anti-slavery organization. The center presents the world's first museum-quality, permanent exhibition on the subjects of modern-day slavery and human trafficking. (Source: NURFC)

Website: <http://www.freedomcenter.org/>

Phone: 513-333-7500

The New Abolitionist Movement (NAM)

Dayton, OH

Mission: NAM is dedicated to the elimination of human trafficking. It was established through the passion and determination of students committed to raising awareness of and actively combating human trafficking. They continually strive to implement their foundational concepts – passion, dedication, awareness, and action – in community presentations, fundraising events, lobbying efforts, and victim assistance. (Source: NAM)

Website: http://academic.udayton.edu/HumanRights/tnam_pg_1.htm

Phone: 217-285-2621

Rahab's Hideaway

Columbus, OH

Mission: Rahab's Hideaway, Inc. is a non-profit organization that provides appropriate responses for those who have become victims of human trafficking/prostitution. To that end, it is their goal to prevent trafficking in human beings, especially women and children by targeting 5 areas of service; housing, health, education, income, and justice through the following objectives: raise awareness about the root causes of prostitution and trafficking in human beings for sexual purposes, develop and share sustainable 'best practices' and strategies to combat trafficking in human beings among the project partners, promote preventative and awareness raising measures including legislative, social, criminal justice and educational initiatives to discourage the demand for sexual exploitation that fosters trafficking. (Source: Rahab's Hideaway)

Website: <http://rahabshideaway.org/>

Phone: 614-593-5033

Renaissance Male Project (RMP)

OH

Mission: RMP's mission is to grow stronger communities by focusing on the unique opportunities of working with men and boys in society. They offer quality trainings, research, evaluation reports, and a wide variety of experiences for individuals, groups, and organizations to increase their knowledge and skills for working with males. RMP has three primary focus areas: social welfare, ending violence against women, and research, evaluation, and advocacy. (Source: RMP)

Website: <http://renaissancemaleproject.com/>

Second Chance

Toledo, OH

Mission: Second Chance is a social service program which provides comprehensive services to victims of domestic sex trafficking and prostitution. Their work includes raising community awareness about the issues of sex trafficking and the commercial sexual exploitation of children and advocating with women and youth throughout the country to secure and provide resources for treatment and services for victims of sex trafficking and exploitation. (Source: Second Chance)

Website: <http://www.secondchancetoledo.org/>

OKLAHOMA

Oklahomans Against Trafficking of Humans (OATH)

Oklahoma City, OK

Mission: OATH is a state-wide agency promoting awareness and education about human trafficking in Oklahoma. Their mission is to encourage awareness on the issue of trafficking, focus on prevention through school programs and ending demand, and engage in victim advocacy work. (Source: OATH)

Website: <http://oathcoalition.org/>

Phone: 918-855-1764

OREGON

JustOne

Portland, OR

Mission: JustOne is a nonprofit organization that works through innovative development of resources, creative awareness campaigns, educational gatherings, speaking engagements and activist mobilization, JustOne provides reprieve to the marginalized and the oppressed. (Source: JustOne)

Website: <http://just4one.org/>

Oregonians Against Trafficking Humans (OATH)

State-wide, OR

Mission: OATH is the Oregon Human Trafficking Task Force statewide campaign to encourage citizens to Take The Oath to help combat the growing scourge of human trafficking within the state of Oregon. OATH offers basic training seminars in human trafficking. (Source: OATH)

Website: <http://www.cooath.org/>

PENNSYLVANIA

The Project to End Human Trafficking

Pittsburgh, PA

Mission: The mission of the Project to End Human Trafficking is to work toward the elimination of trafficking in persons, especially women and children trafficked for the purpose of sexual exploitation. Their mission is actualized through activities such as educating the general public, conducting research, advocating, and collaborating with other organizations. (Source: Project to End Human Trafficking)

Website: <http://www.endhumantrafficking.org/>

Soroptimist

Philadelphia, PA

Mission: Soroptimist is an international organization for business and professional women who work to improve the lives of women and girls, in local communities and throughout the world. In order to accomplish this goal, the organization administers several international programs. Soroptimist's STOP Trafficking program is a project that raises awareness about the sexual trafficking of women and girls, and seeks to encourage citizens, law makers and service providers to focus on this global problem. (Source: Soroptimist)

Website: <http://www.soroptimist.org/>

Phone: 215-893-9000

RHODE ISLAND

Citizens Against Trafficking (CAT)

RI

Mission: Citizens Against Trafficking is a broad based coalition formed in 2009 to combat all forms of human trafficking. CAT advocates for effective public policy and law to combat human trafficking. CAT believes prostitution is inherently harmful and fuels the demand for sex trafficking. CAT believes decriminalized prostitution in Rhode Island enabled the expansion of the sex industry, an industry vulnerable to trafficking. CAT believes that human trafficking is a market. CAT is committed to addressing demand. (Source: CAT)

Website: <http://www.citizensagainsttrafficking.org/>

TENNESSEE

Community Coalition Against Human Trafficking (CCAHT)

Knoxville, TN

Mission: The goals of CCAHT are to provide collaborative space for anti-trafficking work to flourish, raise overall awareness about the issue of human trafficking, facilitate training and equipping of first responders to human trafficking, and assist in the restoration of victims of human trafficking. (Source: CCAHT)

Website: <http://www.ccaht.org/>

Phone: 865-236-1046

End Slavery in Tennessee

State-wide, TN

Mission: The End Slavery in Tennessee mission is to foster slave-free communities through prevention, education and community engagement. Their engaged army of volunteers is a grassroots expression of the International Teams ministry to vulnerable people. (Source: End Slavery in Tennessee)

Website: <http://endslaverytn.org/>

Equitas Group

Knoxville, TN

Mission: Equitas is a philanthropic organization working with projects and partners that seek justice, intervention, holistic restoration and advocacy for the vulnerable and oppressed. They build strategic partnerships and collaborations through funding, advising and advocating — changing the lives of exploited and marginalized people, for good.

Website: <http://equitasgroup.org/>

The Home Foundation

Nashville, TN

Mission: The Home Foundation is a non-profit charitable foundation dedicated to the eradication of human trafficking both domestically and abroad. Through advocacy, education and relief efforts, the Home Foundation is committed to end the suffering of women and children sold into sexual slavery. (Source: The Home Foundation)

Website: <http://www.thehomefoundation.net/>

Phone: 615-356-0946

Second Life of Chattanooga

Chattanooga, TN

Mission: Second Life of Chattanooga is a non-profit organization dedicated to ending sexual exploitation and slavery in the Greater Chattanooga area. (Source: Second Life of Chattanooga)

Website: <http://secondlifechattanooga.org/>

Phone: 423-310-3932

TEXAS

Central Texas Coalition Against Human Trafficking (CTCAHT)

State-wide, TX

Mission: the mission of the CTCAHT is to work collaboratively to increase public awareness and identification of human trafficking cases, and to provide identified victims of human trafficking with comprehensive social and medical services. (Source: CTCAHT)

Website: <http://www.ctcaht.org/>

Children at Risk

Houston, TX

Mission: Children at Risk is a nonprofit organization that drives change for children through research, education and influencing public policy. It is the only nonprofit organization that is focused solely on the well being of the whole child, tracks those indicators through its publication Growing Up in Houston, and proactively drives change for children by educating legislators on the importance of improving each of the key indicators. (Source: Children at Risk)

Website: <http://childrenatrisk.org/>

Phone: 713-869-7740

For the Silent

Tyler, TX

Mission: For The Silent is a non-profit organization contending – through advocacy, prayer, and fundraising initiatives – for children silenced by sexual exploitation and trafficking. (Source: For the Silent)

Website: <http://www.forthesilent.org/>

Phone: 903-520-4931

UTAH

Child Rescue

Salt Lake City, UT

Mission: The Child Rescue Association of North America is a nonprofit organization in Canada and the United States that exists to rescue children from the horrors of human trafficking through education and intervention. (Source: Child Rescue)

Website: <http://www.rescuingskids.org/>

Phone: 801-850-4785

Utah Health & Human Rights Project (UHHR)

Salt Lake City, UT

Mission: UHHR is a direct service and advocacy agency that promotes the health, dignity, and self-sufficiency of refugees, asylees, and immigrants who have endured severe human rights abuses, including torture, war-related trauma, and human trafficking. UHHR is guided by profound respect for the dignity and resiliency of their clients. They believe that all survivors of human rights abuses deserve the opportunity to live fulfilling, dignified, and productive lives.

(Source: UHHR)

Website: <http://www.uhhr.org/>
Phone: 801-363-4596

VERMONT

Coalition of Vermonters Against Slavery Today (COVAST)

The Coalition of Vermonters Against Slavery Today is a group dedicated to ending human trafficking and modern day slavery specifically within the state of Vermont. COVAST is presently advocating for changes in their legislature and raising awareness in the community around the issues of human trafficking specifically within the state of Vermont. (Source: COVAST)

Website: <http://covast.org/>

VIRGINIA

Global Centurion

Arlington, VA

Mission: Global Centurion is a non-governmental organization whose mission is to assist communities, states, and countries in eradicating child slavery by focusing on the demand side of the slavery. By targeting child predators for arrest, prosecution, and successful conviction, Global Centurion will help to eliminate the demand fueling this heinous crime. (Source: Global Centurion)

Website: <http://globalcenturion.org/>
Phone: 703-276-3000

Initiative Against Sexual Trafficking (IAST)

Alexandria, VA

Mission: IAST exists to create and equip a new abolition movement for the eradication of sexual trafficking, the protection of survivors, and the prosecution of traffickers and exploiters. They provide resources on their website in the hopes of igniting the public's passion, and in order to equip the public with the information needed to join the fight against sex traffickers and exploiters. (Source: IAST)

Website: <http://iast.net>
Phone: 703-519-5896

Jubilee Campaign

Fairfax, VA

Mission: Jubilee Campaign promotes the human rights and religious liberty of ethnic and religious minorities. Jubilee also advocates against the exploitation of children, paying particular attention to the sex industry. One current project is freeing child slaves in India. Jubilee works with several Indian organizations to operate homes for children of women trapped in the sex industry. (Source: Jubilee Campaign)

Website: <http://www.jubileecampaign.org/>

Phone: 703-503-0791

National Center for Missing and Exploited Children (NCMEC)

Alexandria, VA

Mission: NCMEC is a private, nonprofit organization which was created in 1984. The mission of the organization is to serve as the nation's resource on the issues of missing and sexually exploited children. The organization provides information and resources to law enforcement, parents, children including child victims as well as other professionals. (Source: NCMEC)

Website: <http://www.ncmec.org/>

Phone: 703-224-2150

WASHINGTON

Angels in the Field

WA

Mission: Angels in the Field helps victims of human trafficking. It was founded by survivor D.J., who endured several decades of sexual slavery before escaping, healing, and turning back to help others. Their mission is to identify victims of human trafficking through awareness, education, outreach and recovery. They work in the Washington State region, and focus on three main areas: awareness, education, and outreach and recovery. (Source: Angels in the Field)

Website: <http://djsangelsinthefield.com/>

The Defenders USA

Vancouver, WA

Mission: The Defenders USA is a project of Shared Hope International. It's a national initiative aimed at mobilizing 100,000 men in the fight to end the demand for prostituted children – that's one Defender for every victim. A Defender is simply a man who makes a pledge, keeps a promise and has a plan. (Source: Shared Hope)

Website: <http://www.sharedhope.org/thedefenders/Home.aspx>

Phone: 1-866-437-5433

The Office of Crime Victims Advocacy (OCVA)

Olympia, WA

Mission: OCVA provides advice to local and state governments on practices and policies that impact crime victims and provides funding, training, and consultation to help communities develop programs to serve crime victims. This activity also includes advocacy for victims who encounter difficulty accessing services or who believe their statutory or constitutional rights have been denied. OCVA supports and administers many programs including Prostitution Prevention and Intervention Program. (Source: OCVA)

Website: <http://www.commerce.wa.gov/site/255/default.aspx>

Hotline: 800-822-1067

Seattle Against Slavery (SAS)

Seattle, WA

Mission: SAS is a grassroots coalition working to make a slave-free world, one city at a time. Uniting community-based abolition activists, local and national non-government organizations, government agencies, and other coalitions, SAS seeks to raise human trafficking awareness and mobilize the public to better advocate for victims, enhance survivor care, promote legislation to combat human trafficking, and help service providers build capacity. Their ultimate goal is to restore the dignity and value of all human beings by ending these demeaning and dehumanizing practices. (Source: SAS)

Website: <http://seattleagainstslavery.org/>

Phone: 360-586-0725

Tronie Foundation

Olympia, WA

Mission: The Foundation works to prevent human trafficking by providing survivor mentorship programs to help survivors achieve their full potential in life. It also works on educating communities, students, and governments on survivors' experiences through social media and global awareness campaigns; identifying the environments that give rise to the possibility of slavery; and bringing government leaders, grassroots leaders, and survivors together to work toward the well-being of all people. (Source: Tronie Foundation)

Website: <http://troniefoundation.org/>

Phone: 626-825-0309

WASHINGTON, DC

DC Stop Modern Slavery (DC SMS)

Washington, D.C.

Mission: DC SMS is a diverse and growing community group taking action to end slavery wherever it occurs, beginning in their own city. Their goal is to end modern slavery through community education and action. (Source: DC SMS)

Website: <http://www.stopmodernslavery.org/>

FAIR Fund

Washington, DC

Mission: FAIR Fund, a D.C. based international nonprofit organization, works to prevent human trafficking and sexual violence in the lives of youth, especially girls, around the world. FAIR Fund's approach combines preventative education workshops, outreach to exploited youth, and art therapy for girl survivors. FAIR Fund also provides adult ally training to teachers, social workers, educators, police, judges, lawyers, medical professionals, and students on how to best identify and assist high risk and sexually exploited or trafficked teens. (Source; FAIR Fund)

Website: <http://www.fairfund.org/>

Phone: 202-265-1505

Free the Slaves

Washington, D.C.

Mission: Free the Slaves educates, motivates, activates -helping people discover their unique role in this great endeavor. They share strategies, stories and lessons learned with state of the art technology, including the world's largest free video library on modern day slavery. Free the Slaves takes what they learn in the field to demand that governments and businesses do the right thing: enforce existing laws and clean slavery out of product chains. (Source: Free the Slaves)

Website: <http://www.freetheslaves.net/>

Innocents at Risk

Washington, DC

Mission: Innocents at Risk is a child-advocacy non-for-profit organization established to fight human trafficking by raising awareness and educating about this problem among the international and diplomatic community, the corporate sector, students in public schools and universities and among the general public. They also work with flight attendants, who are their first line of defense in spotting and reporting traffickers. They are dedicated to protecting children from all forms of abuse, and work to end child exploitation and child trafficking everywhere. (Source: Innocents at Risk)

Website: <http://www.innocentsatrisk.org/>

Phone: 202-625-4338

International Justice Mission (IJM)

Washington, DC

Mission: International Justice Mission is a human rights agency that secures justice for victims of slavery, sexual exploitation and other forms of violent oppression. IJM lawyers, investigators and aftercare professionals work with local governments to ensure victim rescue, to prosecute perpetrators and to strengthen the community and civic factors that promote functioning public justice systems. In all of its casework, IJM has a four-fold purpose: victim relief, perpetrator accountability, victim aftercare, and structural transformation. (Source: IJM)

Website: <http://www.ijm.org/>

Phone: 703-465-5495

Polaris Project

Washington, DC

Mission: Polaris Project is one of the largest anti-trafficking organizations in the United States and Japan. Polaris Project's comprehensive approach to combating human trafficking includes conducting direct outreach and victim identification, providing social services and transitional housing to victims, operating the National Human Trafficking Resource Center (NHTRC) serving as the central national hotline on human trafficking, advocating for stronger state and Federal anti-trafficking legislation, and engaging community members in local and national grassroots efforts. (Source: Polaris Project)

Website: <http://www.polarisproject.org/>

Phone: 202-745-1001

Prevent Human Trafficking

Washington, DC

Mission: Prevent Human Trafficking (PHT) is a Washington, D.C., based non-profit organization working to build a bridge between South East Asia and the United States to prevent human trafficking. PHT empowers individuals, organizations and governments to tackle the root causes of human trafficking through direct support and technical assistance. PHT uses its expertise and networks to promote best practice and inspire sustainable solutions in the movement to prevent human trafficking. (Source: Prevent Human Trafficking)

Website: <http://preventhumantrafficking.org/>

Phone: 202-330-2800

The Protection Project

Washington, D.C.

Mission: The Protection Project is a human rights research institute based at the Foreign Policy Institute at The Johns Hopkins University School of Advanced International Studies in Washington, DC. It addresses the issue of trafficking in persons as a human rights violation, and focuses on the promotion of human rights values throughout the world. Of particular importance to The Protection Project is the protection of human security, especially women's and children's rights; fostering of civil society and NGO development through capacity building and coalition building; enhancement of the rule of law by encouraging citizen participation in the political process; advancement of human rights education; and elimination of trafficking in persons. (Source: The Protection Project)

Website: <http://www.protectionproject.org/>

Phone: 202.663.5896

The Rebecca Project for Human Rights (RPHR)

Washington, D.C.

Mission: RPHR is a national legal and policy organization that advocates for public policy reform, justice and dignity for vulnerable families. (Source: RPHR)

Website: <http://www.rebeccaproject.org/>

Phone: 202-265-3906

The Renewal Forum

Washington, D.C.

Mission: The Renewal Forum is a not-for-profit corporation founded to undertake programs of policy research and advocacy to promote respect for human dignity. The principals of the Forum include several leading national experts on human trafficking. The initial focus of the Renewal Forum is on the trafficking of juveniles here in the United States. (Source: Renewal Forum)

Website: <http://renewalforum.org/>

Phone: 202-544-3344

Shared Hope International

Washington, D.C.

Mission: Shared Hope International exists to rescue and restore women and children in crisis. They are leaders in a worldwide effort to prevent and eradicate sex trafficking and slavery through education, state law advocacy, and public awareness. Shared Hope International's prevention programs examine the conditions that allow women and children to be bought and sold and document the marketplaces of victimization around the world. They work to enhance awareness of modern-day sexual slavery and build international alliances to combat sex trafficking. Their rescue programs are integrated into the outreach efforts of local restoration centers or survivor-led shelters with whom they partner. Through these partnerships they are able to successfully remove women and children from sexual exploitation and begin the healing process. Programs address immediate and long-term needs including safe shelter, medical and mental health care, spiritual renewal, education, life skills, job training and vocational programs. (Source: Shared Hope International)

Website: <http://www.sharedhope.org/>

Phone: 1-866-HER-LIFE

Vital Voices Global Partnership

Washington, D.C.

Mission: Vital Voices' mission is to identify, invest in and bring visibility to extraordinary women around the world by unleashing their leadership potential to transform lives and accelerate peace and prosperity in their communities. They are at the forefront of international coalitions to combat human trafficking and other forms of violence against women and girls and they enable women to become change agents in their governments, advocate for social justice, and support democracy and the rule of law. (Source: Vital Voices)

Website: <http://www.vitalvoices.org/>

Phone: 202-861-2625

Women Against Slavery

Washington, D.C.

Mission: Women Against Slavery meet weekly to educate themselves on topics related to human trafficking. They then educate their immediate networks of friends and family on the issues when the opportunity arises. They also post news items on their blog to further stimulate dialogue on the topic. They occasionally have fundraising and awareness events to support worthy charities. Women Against Slavery welcomes any woman who would like to learn more about this important human rights issue.

Website: <http://womenagainstsavery.org/>

Youth Advocate Program International (YAPI)

Washington, D.C.

Mission: YAPI strongly opposes and advocates for the prevention and elimination of the Commercial Sexual Exploitation of Children (CSEC) within the United States and around the world. CSEC includes the use of children in prostitution, pornography, and trafficking for sexual purposes. (Source: YAPI)

Website: <http://www.yapi.org/>

Phone: 202-244-1986

WISCONSIN

Trafficking Ends with Action (TEA)

Milwaukee, WI

Mission: TEA is an organization dedicated to ending human trafficking and modern-day slavery through action. This means responding in a multi-faceted manner, but more importantly building networks of effective action. By providing quality research, education, service, and engagement of the community, TEA works to combat labor and sex trafficking. (Source: TEA)

Website: <http://teawisconsin.org/>
Phone: 414-502-TEAW