

This is not dying

Sometimes you have to lose your mind to find yourself.

A music driven shamanic journey of three friends on a road trip who end up going further than they ever imagined. Following the breadcrumbs of synchronicity, dropped by an intelligent universe; they embark on a pilgrimage to the dark forest of the psyche in search of transcendent illumination.

This is not dying is as simple as looking in the mirror, and as complex as your most twisted nightmare. The ego's labyrinth is the ultimate prison but truth will set you free.
