- There will be an in-class book check for Gallos’ students on Friday, February 22nd. A physical copy needs to be provided. Remember, it is the 4th Edition.
- There will be an in-class practice multiple choice test, at least two after school prep sessions, and one Saturday AP review session. We may offer an after school full practice if demand warrants it.
- Rice is offering an excellent prep session but space is limited. They also have online prep. <https://glasscock.rice.edu/areas-study/education/student-programs>
- CollegeBoard (they write the exam) has numerous resources available to help you prepare. <https://apstudent.collegeboard.org/apcourse/ap-united-states-history/exam-practice>
- Also Khan Academy <https://www.khanacademy.org/humanities/ap-us-history>
- Gilder Lehrmann <http://ap.gilderlehrman.org/>
- Plus, we recommend all of Johns Green’s Crash Course US History, HipHughes, and Adam Norris. The Ultimate Guide to the Presidents series is also very useful.
