To Whom It May Concern:

Enrica has worked with me in a number of movies, ranging from Hollywood blockbusters (Wrath of the Titans) to indie movies (Raoul Taburin). She is also being on charge of the scores of my opera Los Amantes. In every case, she showed big talent in a huge scope of musical and also technological tasks. I can say sincerely that she is the most complete person assisting me ever. Her commitment with the work has been always on the top, making me feel safe and confident. Her musicality and formation is flawless, actually much better than mine, as she has covered me in gaps that I always find difficulty in fixing myself. No doubt that Enrica will have a brilliant career as a composer, orchestrator, or whatever area she decides to focus in music creation. As a person to work with, Enrica is sweet and much fun, but also strong and determinate when the occasion comes. In a word, Enrica Sciandrone is highly recommended, and I can only wish her the best.
