

IPMAG XV Annual Conference Programme 2015

All Welcome

www.ipmag.ie

Acton's Hotel, Kinsale, Co. Cork. January 30-February 1, 2015, no advance booking required.
(€30 members, €55 non-members; concession for students/OAP €20 members, €45 non-members)

'Bridging the Gap' - Considering the Post-Medieval Archaeology of Transport, Travel and War.

Friday January 30; Meet at Acton's Hotel, Kinsale at 4.30pm

- 5.00-6.30pm Tour of Historic Town of Kinsale, led by local historian, author and master mariner John Thuillier.
- 6.30-8.00pm Keynote speech by Cllr. Kevin Murphy, Chairman of the Municipality District of Kinsale & Bandon and former County Mayor of Kinsale.
Wine reception and music by 'Torcan' in the Municipal Town Hall (voluntary contributions toward the music most appreciated).
- 8.00pm Voyage townward to An Seanacháí Pub in historic Market Street.

Saturday January 31: Charles Fort Suite, Acton's Hotel, Kinsale

- 9.30-9.55am Registration
- 9.55-10.00am Welcome to delegates

Session 1: Military Links in a Coastal Landscape

Chair Kieran McCarthy

- 10.00-10.20am JIM O'NEILL
Cromsters and cots: littoral and riverine warfare during the Nine Years War, 1593-1603.
- 10.20-10.40am PAUL O'KEEFFE
Camps, cannons & calivers: the archaeology of the Siege of Kinsale, AD 1601.
- 10.40-11.00am BRIAN SCOTT
The use of mortars at the Siege of Londonderry, 1689.
- 11.00-11.20am Break
- 11.20-11.50pm COLIN RYNNE
Richard Lovell Edgeworth, his Tellograph, and the defence of Ireland, 1794-1804.
- 11.50-12.10pm DAVID MCILLREAVY
The Pigeon House Fort: Developing the Dublin Bay Redoubt, 1798-1815.

- 12.10-12.30pm JOHN THUILLIER
Kinsale's interface with the maritime, ashore and afloat.
- 12.30-1.00pm Questions & Discussion session 1
- 1.00-2.00pm Lunch (... can be purchased at the hotel & several local establishments nearby)

Session 2: Links in Trade and Transport

Chair Connie Kelleher

- 2.00-2.20pm JULIANNA O'DONOGHUE
The Colla Shipwreck: New Evidence for 17th-century trade and transport networks in West Cork.
- 2.20-2.40pm ELENA TURK
Transport in a Controlled Landscape.
- 2.40-3.00pm BARRA O'DONNABHAIN
Our Experiment at Spike Island: Excavation of a Convict Graveyard.
- 3.00-3.20pm IAN KUJIT
A curious linking between City and Sea: 19th-century National Development Policy and the material footprint of local island improvement.
- 3.20-3.40pm FIONNBARR MOORE
RMS Lusitania - Porthole to another age: Iconic monument, precious artefact, legal battlefield.
- 3.40-4.00pm Questions & Discussion session 2
- 4.00-4.20pm Break
- 4.20-5.30pm IPMAG COMMITTEE MEETING
- 8.00pm CONFERENCE DINNER:
Acton's Hotel, Kinsale
All welcome. Names and monies (€20pp) will be taken at the IPMAG Registration Desk for the Conference Dinner- numbers are limited. Please book early!

Sunday February 1: Charles Fort Suite, Acton's Hotel, Kinsale

- 9.30-9.50am Registration

Session 3: Post-1700s Links: Warfare, Commemoration and Protection

Chair Frank Coyne

- 9.50-10.10am GAVIN HUGHES
'Anchored in Suvla Bay: Action in progress on shore...'
- 10.10-10.30am KARL BRADY
Documenting WWI Wrecks in Irish Waters: Developments and Challenges.
- 10.30-10.50am DAMIEN SHIELDS
Exploring the archaeological opportunities of the Decade of Centenaries.
- 10.50-11.20am Questions & Discussion session 3 & Conference sessions round-up and close
- 11.20-11.40am Break
- 11.40-1.00pm IPMAG AGM
- 1.00-2.00pm Lunch (... can be purchased at the hotel & several local establishments nearby)
- After lunch optional tours: (car pooling will be required; sites are located closeby).
- 2.00-3.30pm TOUR Charles Fort National Monument (€3 per person; guided tour; names and numbers required in advance)
- 3.30-4.30pm TOUR James Fort/Castlepark National Monument (free admission; no official tour guide).